SHEDD NEWS NOTES

SHEDD, March 13.—(Special to the Democrat)—A farewell party was given in the U. P. church last Wednesday evening to G. W. Hawthorne and family, who expect to leave for Washington Springs, S. Dakota.

A program of music and speaking was had, after which Mrs. Walter Moore, teacher of Shedd school primary department, presented a fine set of desert spoons in behalf of the many friends who attended the party. Refreshments and a social time closed the evening. The family will be greatly missed in this community.

The Shedd high school gave a drama Friday evening in the W. O. W. Hall. A big crowd attended and $40 was raised, which will be used in some of the needed branches of the high school work.

Glen Hawthorne had a sale Friday afternoon, selling off all his personal property, consisting of household goods, a few pieces of farm machinery, two horses and three head of cattle. Mr. Hawthorne expects to leave Saturday evening.

The Boy Scout orchestra is growing larger. They expect to have 18 pieces soon. Prof. Everett Moses of Albany is their instructor. Every member is taking interest in the music. The orchestra expects to give a recital about the first of May.

The S. P. company is building a water tower just north of the lumberyard on which they will place a large tank.

The S. P. rock crusher is busy crushing rock on Saddle Butte. Blasts are heard nearly every day from the butte.

The late rains have stopped farming for awhile around here.

The Odd Fellows' lodge met Saturday evening and conferred the first and second degrees on H. C. Clark. The small number present was hardly enough to put on the work. Better attendance is expected at the next meeting.

G. W. Hawthorne and family left on the 6:30 p. m. train for Washington Springs, South Dakota, where they will move on to a farm near that place. A number of friends came to the depot to see them off.

George Dannan and C. C. Arnold visited the Christian Endeavor Society of Halsey last Sunday evening. A fine meeting was heard.

Miss Inez Peterson spent the week-end at her home in Portland.

The Riverside Sunday school is to be the guest of the Orleans Sunday school next Sunday, March 17th. There is to be a basket dinner and Rev. Schuster will preach in the afternoon.

Much Unconscious Lying.

In these days there is more prevarication, or fibbing, or misrepresentation, or whatever you care to call it, because we have come to feel that we can stretch the truth and still be truthful. There is a lot of lying that is unconscious lying.

Will Soon Have Sea Mastery.

E. G. Grace, president of the Bethlehem Steel corporation, told the 500 guests of the Allentown (Pa.) chamber of commerce at its banquet recently that the submarine destroyers which the Bethlehem corporation will build for the government are more than all of the destroyers now in the world. Mr. Grace said he regarded the rapid construction of destroyers as the solution of the submarine menace. Bethlehem plants now employ 30,000 men as compared with 9,000 five years ago. Charles M. Schwab, who also spoke, said that the pay roll of the Bethlehem plants is now $100,000,000 a year.—Iron Age.

MARY PICKFORD TONIGHT IN "THE LITTLE AMERICAN"

In undoubtedly the most gripping and thrilling photodrama in which she has ever appeared, the nation's sweetheart, Mary Pickford, will be seen at the Globe Theatre today in her newest Arctcraft picture, "The Little American." A vital story by Cecil B. De Mille and Jeanie Macpherson and produced under the personal direction of Mr. De Mille whose many creations have made him one of the foremost masters of photoplay technique, this film offers a particularly timely subject of patriotic theme. The play is presented as a benefit for the Boy Scouts.

Since her appearance at the head of her own company for the Arctcraft Pictures corporation, Miss Pickford has appeared in several strong, dramatic photoplays. Her recent production, "A Romance of the Redwoods" which when first shown proved a sensation, made a lasting impression upon the minds of her thousands of admirers. However, in "The Little American" she is given a story which for thrilling situations and great appeal outdoes anything the famous little star has ever appeared in.

The story deals with the present great war and offers various surprises that when seen on the screen, will disclose remarkable effects. As the little American girl marooned in a French chateau while the battle surges around her, "Little Mary" is given an opportunity to display the wonderful dramatic ability with which she is gifted. Although the story deals with the war, it is not of the same type as the ordinary war drama, as it deals more with the intimate than with the general. In keeping with the talents of the star an exceptionally capable supporting cast appears in this production, including such well-known players as Hobart Bosworth, Jack Holt, James Neill, Raymond Hatton, Guy Oliver, Edythe Chapman, Littlean Leighton, Walter Long, Dewitt Jennings and little Ben Alexander.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our sincere thanks to those who were so kind during the illness and death of our beloved sister, Pearl McClocklin. Also for their hearty attendance and beautiful floral offerings.

"BABES IN THE WOODS" TO BE SEEN TONIGHT

Another elaborate motion picture version of an age-old story will be shown at the Rolfe tonight. The new Fox spectacle is a cinema offering of the famous fairy tale, "The Babes in the Woods," and is several reels more than ordinary feature length.

Francis Carpenter and Virginia Lee Corbin, give an amazing demonstration of dramatic ability.

Alan Dale, one of America's foremost and best known reviewers, says of them in cold type:

"None of the proud movie stars at colossal salaries can hold a candle to wonderful Francis Carpenter and Miss Corbin. The boy has a smile that is most captivating and that actually lights up his winsome little features. As for the facial expression of the girl, it is almost beyond belief, and a joy to behold. Their performances disarm all criticism, and I assert that theatregoers should make it a point to see them."

The photoplay spectacle was filmed in the Grand Canyon, Colorado, in the big Fox studio at Hollywood and in the mountains and valleys of California; and in Hawaii. The natural settings are particularly beautiful and such delicacies. The Witch makes her entry upon the scene with the immortal lines, "Nibble, nibble, little mouse, who's nibbling at my little house?"

The story has been invested with a short modern prologue and epilogue.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Denies Disloyalty

To the Editor: Please allow me space in your paper to correct a statement which was published a short time ago, and which has just been brought to my notice.

I am not now a German sympathizer, nor ever was. I took up the war work in school as I was requested by distributing the food conservation cards and by selling and having the children sell the Red Cross stamps.

I did not resign my school because the school board asked me to, but on account of deceitfulness on the part of the members of the board. They came to school and asked me to leave the room a few minutes so they could talk to the children. Supposing them to be honorable men I did so. Then they did one thing and afterwards told me another.
