President's Message Is Read at Conference but Is Received in Silence.

APPEAL MADE TO U. S. LABOR TO MAKE TROUBLE

Bolsheviki Leaders Tied Hand and Foot to Germany; Conference German Directed.

By Joseph Shaplin, U. P. Staff Correspondent.

PETROGRAD, March 16.—Wilson's message to the Russian people was read at the Moscow pansoviet congress amid silence.

The feature of the day will be a banquet, at which it is expected to have at least 1000 people.

By Carl D. Groat, U. P. Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—That the Bolsheviki leaders have definitely cast their lot with the Germans is proved further by the chilled reception given to Wilson's message.

The resolution is regarded here as German-directed and authorities say it will not be heeded.

LONDON, March 16.—The Moscow pansoviet has not yet ratified the German peace.

LIBERTY LOAN LEADERS RECEIVE INSTRUCTIONS

Enthusiastic Meeting Held Last Night; Big Banquet Planned for Liberty Day.

An enthusiastic meeting of captains and workers for the Third Liberty Loan drive of Albany and vicinity was held last night in the council chambers.

The workers were given instructions by Dr. A. J. Hodges, chairman of the committee in charge of the county work.

The committee is getting in shape for the big drive which starts April 6, and by the opening date the campaign will be perfectly organized.

April 6 has been set aside as Liberty Day when it is planned to open a big celebration in Albany to open the campaign.

The feature of the day will be a banquet, at which it is expected to have at least 1000 people.

Prospects for reassembling the constitutional assembly to form a coalition cabinet are good.

WILSON MESSAGE EXPECTED SOON

Statement to the World Will End Talk of Peace Without Victory Says Wash.

WILL ALSO CLEAR UP SIBERIAN QUESTION

Germany Drunk With Thoughts of Conquest and Knows No Argument but Force.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—(U. P.)—A forceful war message to the world is expected from Wilson soon.

It is indicated that he is determined to end the silence regarding the American position toward the Japanese Siberian move.

It is simultaneously learned that peace talk is idle in view of the German ruthless invasion of Russia and her activities in the Near East.

In the light of the fact that the President has set his foot down on peace talk, diplomats believe he will definitely state that peace now must come only by the sword.

COUNTY COURT NAMES ROAD FOREMEN FOR 1918

Single Road Master Not to Be Named This Year; Four Men Will Handle the Work.

The county court has completed a list of over 30 road foremen who have been appointed to handle the road work for this year.

The court has decided not to appoint a single roadmaster to handle the work of the entire county, but to have men in all parts of the county superintend the work in their various localities.

The operations will, however, be largely directed from the courthouse and a uniform plan will be carried out. The men named have had considerable experience in roadbuilding and will be able to give good service to the county.

The list of those appointed are: J. D. Isom, Albany; W. H. Hulbert, Albany; Fred Sprenger, Shedd; J. C. Standish, Halsey; W. W. Cook, Harrisburg; Arthur Springgate, Harrisburg; W. M. Sawyer, Brownsville; Geo. R. Pugh, L. Kirk, Brownsville; O. B. Wilson, Frank Johnson, Lebanon; W. C. Scott, Tangent; E. Meeker, Albany; John Maxwell, Albany; W. R. Cate, Tangent; Frank A. Miller, Shelburn; John Shimunek, Scio; W. A. Gilkey, Thomas; F. D. Cornett and Jas. Arnold, Crabtree; W. A. Bartley, Lebanon; Ernest Hall, Lebanon; A. C. Brown, Lebanon; H. Hildreth, Crawfordville; John Reinhart, Sweet Home; Geo. S. Jones, Lebanon; T. M. Downing, Lacombe; Mike Bilyes, Scio; F. M. Mitchell, Albany; Ed Trask, Lyons; J. A.
