The week has been a festive one, many lovely social affairs centering about Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Stewart, who will leave tonight for California where Mr. Stewart has been appointed to a position in the Federal Reserve bank.

The Easter season also has already created a stir of social functions, and many delightful affairs have been planned for next week.

A most exquisitely appointed dinner, beautifully arranged in every detail, was the one complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Stewart, for which Miss Flora Mason was hostess on Thursday evening. In a clever and charming rainbow effect, the perfectly appointed tables were adorned with many-colored spring blossoms. Each small table carried out a different color scheme, rose, wisteria, yellow and green being the pleasing color tones, all to be blended in artistic combination on the large table arranged for the honor guests.

Among other guests bidden for this event were Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wilson of Corvallis.

Charmingly informal was the "afternoon" presided over by Mrs. Dan Johnston on Tuesday of this week, when she entertained in honor of Mrs. Charles Stewart. Several friends came in to spend the afternoon in knitting and conversation. In the attractive rooms profusions of daffodils were used in decoration.

Mrs. Joseph Halston and Mrs. LeRoy Wood were supper hostesses on Friday evening, the event being another pleasant affair planned for Mr.

and Mrs. Charles H. Stewart. The guests were seated at small tables, prettily decked with white tulips combined with yellow spring blossoms. Several guests were entertained at this time.

Another of the series of gay dancing parties for the younger set occurred Friday night at the Knights of Pythias hall when a merry crowd passed the evening's hours in that diversion. The affair was given in honor of Miss Loreine Conley, who is spending the week-end in Albany. About 20 couples were guests at the dancing party.

One of the most successful meetings of this year for the Royal Neighbors, was the one of Wednesday night. A large number of members were present for the evening which was pleasantly spent in social diversions. A hokeyized lunch was served cafeteria style early in the evening.

Mrs. J. J. Barrett was a most gracious hostess of this week when she entertained the members of the Thursday study club at her home on West Fifth Avenue. The rooms were effectively decorated with profusions of daffodils. The interesting paper of the afternoon was given by Mrs. G. T. Hockensmith, the subject, "Alice Freeman Palmer" being splendidly worked up. A few social hours were passed later.

One of the most interesting meetings of the Monday club for this season was held at the home of Miss Flora Mason this week. During the evening Mr. A. C. Schmitt gave an excellent talk, using "The Progress of the Schools" for his subject. This was followed by a discussion and the remainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse.

Mrs. E. D. Burnett presided as hostess to the Needlecraft club this week on Thursday afternoon. Among other diversions, Red Cross work took a prominent part in the time. This was completed with a lunch served by Mrs. Burnett.

Miss Mable Metcalf of Portland, who spent last week-end in Albany with her sister, Miss Edna Metcalf, was the motif of several charming and informal affairs. On Saturday evening last week, Miss Gertrude Beuhler entertained at dinner for the pleasure of Misses Edna and Mable Metcalf. Prettily centering the table, where places were arranged for the several guests, was a large bouquet of brilliant yellow daffodils. The group later attended the theatre.

Another honor affair was the dinner of Sunday evening presided over by Miss Edna Metcalf, for her sister. A pleasant social time took up the remaining hours.

For the pleasure of Mrs. Amelia Miller, a charming little "afternoon" was presided over by Mrs. H. A. Leininger, on Tuesday. Making the hours enjoyable, knitting and conversation were the pastimes. Later Mrs. Leininger served a lunch. Those who were asked to spend the afternoon were Mrs. Woodcock, Mrs. Tracy, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Sturmer, Mrs. Pipe, Mrs. Goss and Mrs. Beuhler.

Mrs. C. R. Hoevet acted as hostess to the O. B. club on Thursday afternoon. Varied diversions were used in decorative effect about the rooms. Knitting, fancywork and conversation were the pastimes of the pleasant afternoon completed by dainty refreshments. Present as complimentary guests were Mrs. J. B. Nanney, Mrs. A. Gillard and Mrs. M. B. Craft.

As guests of Mrs. Earl Boyles, the Caterie club members spent a pleasant afternoon at her home Wednesday of this week. Adding an atmosphere of spring, an abundance of spring flowers were used about the rooms in artistic decoration. Knitting was the chief diversion of the afternoon, brought to a close when refreshments were served.

A jolly crowd of young people of the college set went to the home of Miss Minevera Speer last night, where they were supper guests. The evening was spent in a social way until a late hour.

Mrs. H. C. Harkness was hostess on Wednesday afternoon to the ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church. A profitable time was passed in work and in a social way.

The Artcraft club met Friday afternoon with Mrs. C. R. Hoevet as the delightful hostess. Daintily adorned the rooms were hyacinths and greenery. Light refreshments were the closing feature of a jolly afternoon. Those who came in to spend the afternoon as additional guests were Mrs. L. H. Fish, Mrs. LeRoy Wood, Mrs. F. C. Pate, Mrs. O. D. Austin, Mrs. J. B. Nanney and Mrs. F. S. Crosby.

On Tuesday night, following their regular session, the Pythian Sisters held a social hour. A covered dish picnic supper was served at a late hour and added a feature to the evening's pleasures.

A 1 o'clock luncheon, informal and delightful, was presided over this week by Mrs. Walton Worrell when she entertained the Monday Bridge club. The handsome appointments of the table were completed by the effectively arranged centerpiece of spring flowers. Bridge was the diversion for the remaining hours of the afternoon.

The Annette Social club of the Eastern Star entertained last night with a covered dish luncheon. The husbands and families of the members were complimentary guests at this time. Music, games and other diversions entertained the guests during the evening.

Delightful in every way was the meeting of the Neos Nymph club on Friday at the home of Mrs. Rollin Hackleman. The Easter season was elaborately represented in the decorations about the rooms, yellow being the color scheme predominant. A musical program for the afternoon consisted of the following numbers: vocal solos by Mrs. Charles Essex, Mrs. Tom Gilchrist and Mrs. Earl Canfield, and a reading by Mrs. Clinton Strainey. As a climax to the enjoyable afternoon, a lunch was served.

A dinner was the occasion of Wednesday evening, given by the girls of the Y. W. C. A. at the home of Miss Elizabeth Irvine, when installation of officers took place. Places were laid for 16 guests at a daintily appointed table, where hyacinths formed a fragrant centerpiece. The following officers took their places: Miss Helen Lee, president; Miss Annie Watkins, vice-president; Miss Mable Clausen, treasurer, and Miss Maud McDaniel, secretary.

The girls of the Alpha Nu club, a popular crowd of the younger set, were guests of Miss Vera Brown Friday evening. Various diversions of a social nature took up the evening's hours until a dainty lunch was served.

A delightful birthday party was given last Saturday at the home of Mrs. J. M. Thrasher, 817 West Fourth street, in honor of the ninth birthday of Miss Elthea Rowley. Games were played and a dainty lunch was served. The guests included the little Misses Mary Paulus, Marguerite Pfeiffer and Wilma Foster and Ella Coleman, of Corvallis; and Masters Donald White, Seth Caldwell, Charles Getley, John Hestrich and Steven Coleman, of Corvallis.

COMB SAGE TEA
INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre at Once.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

White, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautiful dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Look and Feel Clean, Sweet and Fresh Every Day

Drink a glass of real hot water before breakfast to wash out poisons.

Life is not merely to live, but to live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well, look well. What a glorious condition to attain, and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folks who are accustomed to feel full and heavy when they arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breakfast, acid stomach, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the water and phosphate is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatism; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store which will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Catarrh of Throat

Miss Amalie Rustick, 1449 South 16th St., Omaha, Nebraska, writes: "I have suffered with catarrh of the throat. I caught cold and it settled in my throat, and I coughed badly and was very weak. I could not sleep and had no appetite. I had two doctors, and had taken so many different medicines and found no help; I thought I will have to give up; but at last my mother read about Peruna, so I thought of trying that great medicine Peruna. I got a bottle of it and in about four days I almost stopped coughing, and after a while I surely found relief, and from that time we are not without Peruna in our home."
