MISFITS

By F. P. N.

Portland, April 19, 1918.

A notable gathering of former Albany "girls" was held Tuesday evening at the home of J. P. Roberts on East 39th street when the Portland members of the Alpha Omega society of Albany had a reunion, a delightful affair. They were Mrs. Mae Roberts Blackman, Miss Merle Roberts, Miss Winnie Austin, Mrs. Park Stalnaker, Mrs. Reed Dowlin, Mrs. Minnie Luger Funk and Mrs. Zona Haight Young. Others were Mrs. Vesta Wallace Fuller and Miss Louise Wieder.

Monday noon I met Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawkins and Mr. and Mrs. Roberts of Salem starting for a lunch at Hazelwoods.

Miss Cooley, a former popular Albany teacher, had her lunch at the same place as I did Tuesday noon. She is in the Ladd school and has been here six years, making good.

Met George Price, formerly of Albany, while on his way from work at the Electric Steel Co.'s plant. These men in overalls, covered with grime, look mighty good to one. Many of them are getting into clover financially.

Down in the G. N. depot at Seattle the other day, just before leaving for Portland, I had a visit with C. C. Cherry, better known by oldtimers in Albany as "Cap," and John Giblin. Cherry owns the Hotel Cherry at Columbia and 5th streets, now leased, and Mr. Giblin is a former Albany hotelman.

A pleasant visit in Seattle was at the home of Mrs. Ollie Smiley. Her daughter Virginia is a typist in an office on the 60th floor of the Smith. I visited the office to see how it seemed to look down on the world.

J. C. Gallagher, who used to be in Albany for the Eiler Piano House, and I met in the Hotel Savoy lobby at Seattle. He is one of the best piano salesmen on the road.

Happened to meet M. S. Durbin and Mr. Nelson, forest rangers from the Siletz, while in Seattle.

Hereafter my trips will be in Oregon.
