Gray Is Always Good and Here Is a Gray Suit Worth More Than We Ask

You can never go wrong on a blue or gray serge suit. Here's a Gray that's a very special value because (in its numerous models) it is made in such enormous quantities. Large scale production results, of course, in a saving in cost of fabric, and in many economies of manufacture. You cannot possibly realize how much more value you are able to get for $22.50 until you see this suit. There's a Blue Serge Special at the same price, and Blues and Grays (all specials) at $26.50 also. The Clothcraft Shops from which we get these clothes have developed a science of quantity-production that, in our opinion, produces the greatest known clothes values at moderate price. May we show them to you.

members remained to enjoy a social time. Music, dancing and "500" were enjoyed during the evening's time.

Phillip Carrol, who is stationed at this time in Camp Lewis, recently received an appointment as major. This honor was bestowed upon him after service and previous training at West Point. Mrs. Carrol is a charming and popular young matron, formerly Miss Frances Nelson of this city.

Mrs. Thad Young of Portland is the house guest of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Haight, this weekend.

Mrs. W. A. McGee, Mrs. Roy Worley and Mrs. Allen Gill entertained the Ladies' Aid society of the Grace Presbyterian church at the home of Mrs. Worley last Friday afternoon. Cherry blossoms were tastefully used in the decorations, and refreshments were served after a social hour with knitting.

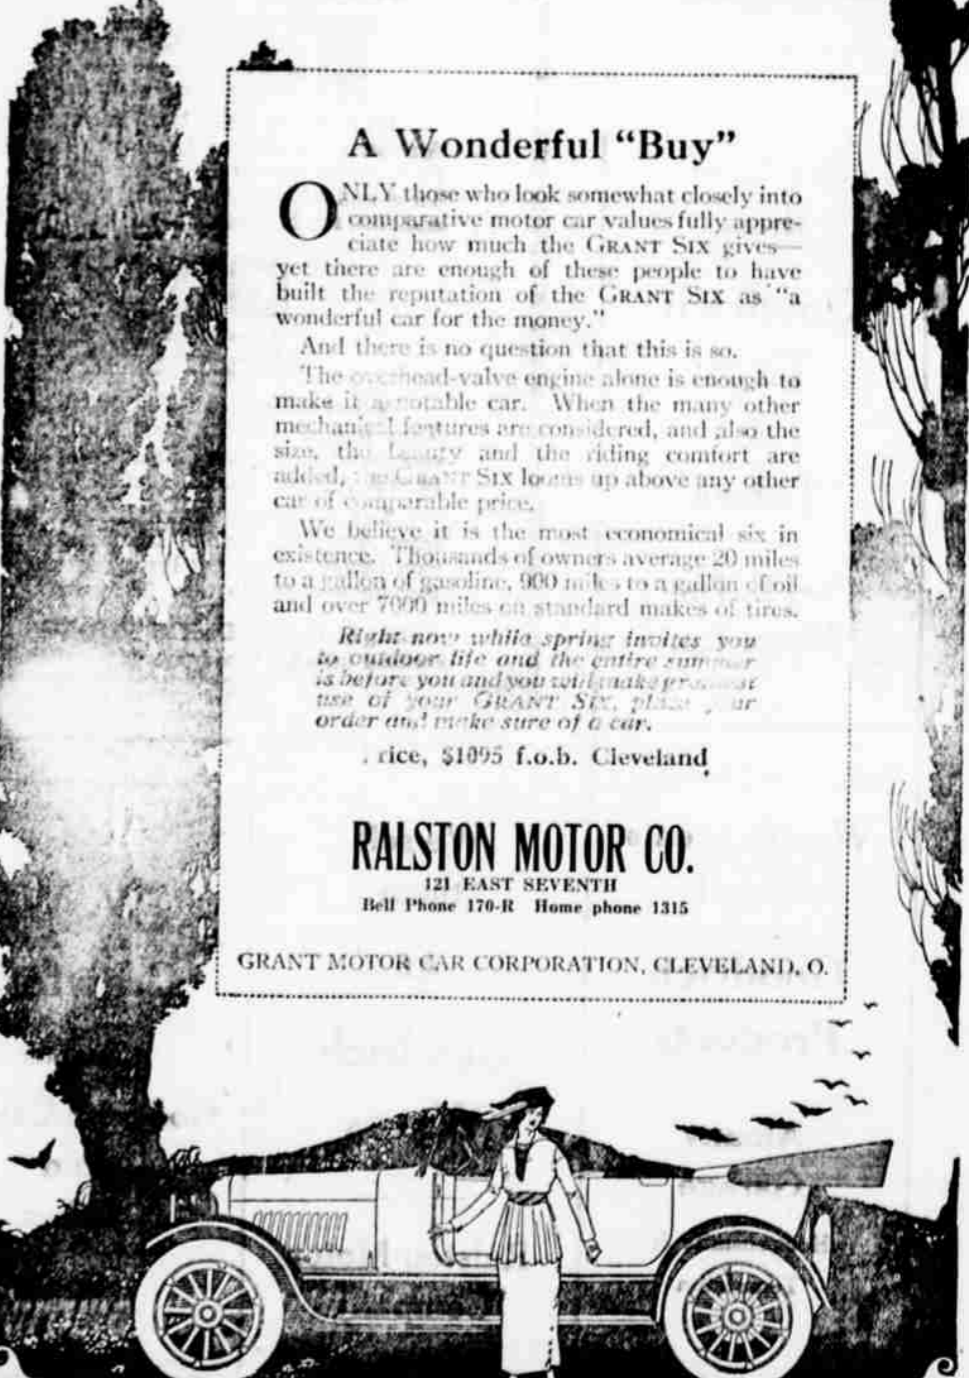

The second nuptial anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. B. Bruce Hunter, of West Third street, was celebrated last evening at a dinner and social affair well-planned and executed throughout. Rare foliage occupied ornamental niches in the rooms. At the table each detail manifested the excellence of judgment used by host and hostess in preparing for the event. Besides friends and acquaintances, especially honored guests were Robert Hunter and Larry Alexander. On Wednesday a gay little crowd of guests were entertained at the home of Mrs. Roy Worley, when little Misses Mary and Ellen Worley were hostesses to their friends. Games, and similar diversions made the afternoon's hours quickly pass, and later a dainty lunch was served.

Among the week's interesting affairs was that of Friday night when the members of the Amoma class were royally entertained by the Argos at the home of Raymond Tomlinson. A short program consisted of several readings by Dalet Propat and whistling solos by Lena Tobey. Other pleasant diversions filled the evening until a late hour, when refreshments were served.

Junior R. C. Benefit— A program will be given next Friday at the Junior high gymnasium for the benefit of the Junior Red Cross. By the proceeds of this entertainment the members hope to reach 100 per cent. The program will be announced later.

Left for Seaside— Mrs. E. A. Thompson and daughter, Mrs. Floyd Shortridge, left this morning for Seaside. After a two-weeks' visit in Seaside with her mother, Mrs. Shortridge will return to Seattle, where her husband is stationed in the navy.

GRANT SIX

A Wonderful "Buy"

ONLY those who look somewhat closely into comparative motor car values fully appreciate how much the GRANT SIX gives—yet there are enough of these people to have built the reputation of the GRANT SIX as "a wonderful car for the money."

And there is no question that this is so. The overhead-valve engine alone is enough to make it a notable car. When the many other mechanical features are considered, and also the size, the beauty and the riding comfort are added, the GRANT SIX leans up above any other car of comparable price.

We believe it is the most economical six in existence. Thousands of owners average 20 miles to a gallon of gasoline, 900 miles to a gallon of oil and over 7000 miles on standard makes of tires.

Right now while spring invites you to outdoor life and the entire summer is before you and you will make prompt use of your GRANT SIX, place your order and be sure of a car.
