CITY NEWS

Baby Boy Born—

A baby boy was born last evening at St. Mary's hospital to Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Marsden. Mother and baby are both doing nicely. Rev. Marsden, the father, was a former Albany Episcopal minister and is now in France as chaplain of the 148th Field Artillery, which is made up of Oregon boys. Mrs. Marsden and children will remain in Albany at the home of her mother, Mrs. H. H. Hewitt, until Mr. Marsden's return.

State Official Here—

J. E. Carleton, assistant state school superintendent, was in Albany this morning on business.

Y. M. C. A. Man Here Yesterday—

Rev. William W. Reid, Y. M. C. A. secretary at Camp Lewis, was in Albany yesterday to say goodbye to his family, en route to New York, from which place he expects shortly to sail for France, and resume his Y. M. C. A. work at the front.

Called to Kansas—

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hancock left yesterday afternoon for Winfield, Kansas, called there by the serious illness of Mr. Hancock's mother, Mrs. Sarah Hancock.

FAYETTEVILLE ITEMS

FAYETTEVILLE, April 18.—(Special to the Democrat)—Those taking the train for Albany Saturday were: A. Knighton and wife, P. H. Freerkson, Miss Burnes, Mrs. Chandler and two daughters, E. Abraham, C. J. Lawson, L. Schultz, Neven McCormick and two sons, Robert and Donald; and Mrs. I. M. Saxton.

E. E. Gordon and wife spent Sunday in Albany.

Mrs. I. M. Saxton went to Cottage Grove Sunday to spend a few days visiting Mrs. C. J. Lawson. While in Eugene she attended the M. E. church between trains.

Mrs. Dunlap and daughter Margaret of Albany spent the week-end at W. B. Acheson's, returning to Albany Monday morning.

Mrs. R. E. Crawford has been visiting at J. C. Brown's. She returned home Monday morning.

J. C. Brown went to Corvallis Monday.

Mark and John Curtis went to Albany Tuesday to get the Ford auto that Mark Curtis bought of Mr. Crawford.

Mrs. Henry Schultz is quite poorly and the baby has the measles.

L. C. Miller is better so that he is able to be around again.

Geo. Githens is sporting a brand new Ford truck, hauling cream for the Hazelwood Co.

Russell Miller was in Albany Tuesday to see the doctor. He is getting some better.

J. W. Brown took the 8:28 train for Portland Wednesday morning.

NEWS NOTES AND PERSONALS FROM SHEDD

SHEDD, April 19.—(Special to the Democrat)—E. A. Lytle is now doing business in his new meat shop. Everything is up-to-date.

A large crowd attended the funeral of J. M. Dixon last Friday afternoon.

The road smoother outfit is working around Shedd the last few days.

Alvin Brock and his mother, Mrs. S. P. Brock, left for Oak Ridge yesterday, where they will spend the summer with Jessie Brock, who owns a homestead near there.

Lots of rock is being crushed by the S. P. crusher at Saddle Butte. Several carloads a day are brought out to the mainline.

A moving picture show was held in the W. O. W. hall last night. A large crowd attended the show.

The roads are getting dusty again after the rains.

Grace Gilt of Albany spent the week-end with friends in Shedd.

Wheatless and meatless days at home mean defeatless days for our boys abroad.
