VAUDEVILLE ACT AT THE GLOBE TONIGHT

A packed house greeted the Adamson Trio at the Globe theatre last night. The company, consisting of Adamson, La Rose and Williams, put on a high class act which was greatly appreciated by the audience. This act has played all Pantages, Ackerman and Harris and Western vaudeville circuits.

Miss LaRose, the whirlwind hula dancer, has been featured in all cities with Adamson's Hawaiians; also the Hello Hawaii Co. Adamson and Williams are two artists on the harp guitar and steel guitar. They will appear at the Globe for the last time tonight. On the same bill is Wm. S. Hart in his latest Arcraft photoplay, "The Silent Man." It is a typical Bill Hart picture, which is equivalent to saying that it is checkfull of stirring scenes, thrilling episodes, and a lot of gunplay. The music will be furnished by the Globe orchestra. The prices remain the same as usual.

Maxwell Philips of Albany today stating that Mrs. C. A. Campbell of Salina, Kansas, had died at the age of 88 years. Mrs. Philips is the only sister of Rev. Philips.

Lecture Tomorrow—

A lecture on Africa will be given tomorrow at the Christian church by Captain Moon, who is a missionary to Africa and who has much to tell of that country. His lecture is expected to be one of the most interesting given in Albany and a large attendance is expected.

Ball Game—
The faculty of the Albany high school expects to take on a team representing the school in a ball game this afternoon. The faculty team is not the favorite with the fans at present, but expects to bring home the bacon, nevertheless.
