GLOBE

Wilson Sells House—
 Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Wilson have closed the deal for the sale of their home at 323 Ferry street to S. D. Olmstead, taking in the trade the Olmstead house on West Third street.

Returns Home—
 Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hughes of Benton City, Wash., left this morning for their home after a visit with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. I. N. Hughes, at Tangent. They were accompanied to Tacoma by Mrs. John B. Coon, who will visit her husband, who is with the Y. M. C. A.

South Dakota Man Here—
 C. S. Blodgett of Rapid City, South Dakota, is here visiting his old friend, Wm. Hinrichs. Mr. Blodgett has been in California and is on his way home going by way of Canada.

Here From Cottage Grove—
 S. J. Devaney of Cottage Grove is here visiting his son, R. L. Devaney.

Returned From Portland—
 Mrs. Walter Parker and daughter, Mrs. C. H. Corson, returned last evening from a few days' visit in Portland.

Weather Report—
 Yesterday's temperature ranged from 34 to 63 degrees. The river fell to 4.4 feet.

For Over-Sunday Visit—
 Mrs. M. H. Crandall left this noon for Medford and Roseburg for an over-Sunday visit.

Ordered East—
 Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Anderson that Albert Rousseau has received orders to report at Camp Hancock, Augusta, Georgia. Mr. and Mrs. Rousseau have been at Bernicia, California, for the past six weeks and left for the new post some days ago. They will stop one day in Chicago on the Eastern trip. Sixty-five men of the same class were ordered to report at Atlanta, Georgia.

Story of the Pilgrims—
 A moving picture sermon of unusual interest will be given at the Methodist church Sunday evening. The perilous journey of the Pilgrims across the Atlantic; their struggles in the new land, and the romance of John Alden and Priscilla as related in "The Courtship of Miles Standish." The screen will present some pointed moral and religious lessons. Free for everybody.
