RED CROSS NOTES

Mrs. J. D. Summers, secretary of the Linn county Red Cross, was elected last night by the executive board as a delegate to the general convention of R. C. workers to be held in Seattle May 6-11 for general conferences and instruction in new surgical dressings.

Mrs. F. E. Livingood was elected chairman of the Junior R. C., the present chairman, Mrs. Waller, having to resign because of ill health.

Bills amounting to $1148.95 were allowed.

The finance promotion committee reported that the drive had received pledges and donations amounting to a little over $700. Some accounts are not closed up but the monthly pledges will be about $600. The committee will be glad to receive new pledges and donations at any time.

The superintendent of rooms reports 263 garments cut, 105 garments finished, 85 garments turned in to supervisor of hospital supplies, 1060 surgical dressings turned over to supervisor. Gifts received: 12 napkins, 12 tray cloths, six dishcloths, six bags, 532 gun wipes.

The knitted goods received were: 198 sweaters, 293 pair socks, six wristlets. Goods shipped out: 175 sweaters, 284 pair socks, 30 wristlets.

The Linn county chapter went over the top by shipping out 22 boxes in the last two weeks.

The military relief committee reported aid given to one family.

Cotton has been received and work is again progressing as usual.

Amounts varying from $20 to $50 have been brought in by the auxiliaries. These help materially to increase the funds of the county chapter.

Marines Are Learning to Speak French

PORTLAND, April 27.—(Special)—The American language has become a dead tongue among officers and attaches of the United States marine recruiting station here.

French has taken its place and nowadays instead of hearing the good old Yankee Doodle lingo, "Parlez Vous Francais," and "Oui, oui, Monsier," fill the air.

So anxious are the local recruiters to get "over there" that they have taken up the study of the French language and to learn it as thoroughly as possible they have adopted the novel plan of conversing in French.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

More and more the enclosed motor car grows strong in popular favor. It's natural, especially with Ford cars, which are busy running every day of the year—winter and summer the Ford serves faithfully and profitably. So for a real, genuine family car there is nothing equal to the Ford Sedan at $695 f. o. b. Detroit. Seats five. Large doors, plate glass sliding windows, silk curtains, deeply upholstered seats, latest type ventilating windshield—a car of refined luxury with the everlastingly reliable Ford chassis.
