Divorce Is Theme

of Rolfe Play
Cardinal Gibbons, archbishop of Baltimore, primate of the Roman Catholic church in the United States, takes an unalterable position with reference to divorce.

"Divorce today is the one great black spot upon American civilization," he said. "It is terrible, unspeakable, outrageous. The number of divorces in the United States in proportion to the population is the greatest in the world. Think of that stain on our escutcheon!"

"The one great black spot" of which Cardinal Gibbons complains will be shown in all its graphic intensity in the William Fox photodrama of social conditions of today, "The Blindness of Divorce," which is the attraction at the Rolfe Theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

This is Oregon's official slogan—Tis Freedom's Call; Lend Your All. Defend yourself. If you can't go across to fight, you can do the next best thing by investing in Liberty Bonds to keep your boy—your neighbor's boy—on the firing line.

To Protect Your Country
To Perpetuate American Freedom
To Keep the Demon Hun From Your Door.
We can't act too quickly. The danger is imminent. We will be tardy at best. Don't stop to think, any more than you would stop to think whether to strike back if you were threatened by an assassin. Will you jeopardize your liberty by failing to do your duty? He who hesitates is most assuredly lost. All that your forefathers fought and died for is lost. All that the patriots of '65 fought for is lost. This is your great opportunity. Use it and Take your place as a real American.

INTENTIONS OF

one believed there was anything wrong but just because it was the duty of the organization to run down suspicious objects. It was discovered that the sheriff's six-shooter was the only weapon in the party but it was decided that if the Home Guard rifles were needed, they could go back and get them. About a mile up the Springhill road the car drove around the corner of some citizen's barn and came on to the wireless station, which proved to be a defunct fir tree which had caught fire when a farmer burned a slash. A pitch knot at the top about 50 feet from the ground, made the steady light and about six feet down another knot, nearly burned out, flashed the wireless signals.

"We can say the tree was 200 feet tall, anyway," said Sheriff Bodine.

Coming out on the road again, a resident of Eugene who had nothing to do with the story, was directed as to the road back to Albany, and the party, which included a Democrat reporter, returned to the armory, where the laugh was on them, according to Lieutenant Willard Marks, who had spent a disconsolate half-hour believing that the Home Guards were serving duty and that he had been too late to get in on the fun.

the earliest possible moment, yet insistent that there should be no haste that would mar the production of the Right Hon. Sir Gilbert Parker's well known novel, Commodore J. Stuart Blackton has devoted both day and night to the work of putting the book into screen form for Paramount.

Commodore Blackton, aside from his natural insistence upon artistic perfection and correction, is doubly determined that the picture shall be a success because of his affection for the author, Sir Gilbert Parker, who has been his guest through the work on "The Judgment House" and has taken a great interest in its progress. "The Judgment House" is to be the attraction at the Globe Theatre today and Thursday.

Food in the mouths of those at the front is ammunition no less important than the shells in their siege guns.
