Let us finish your pictures

A million and a half cakes of soap went overseas in one Y. M. C. A. shipment for American soldiers.

"The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin" is coming.

LARGE CROWDS WITNESSED "THE KAISER" AT THE GLOBE

The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin, photoplay thrills largest audience ever viewing motion picture in Albany.

Albany has gone wild over a photoplay expose of the innermost secrets of the Kaiser's life. These secrets are dramatically told in a massive motion picture production now playing at the Globe Theatre. Seething crowds of people packed and jammed the theatre yesterday afternoon and last night, all breathlessly awaiting the starting of the wonderful picture. And then it came. And as this mass of patriotic Americans saw the masterful story unfold and witnessed the downfall of Europe's madman, they arose as a unit and for the first time in Albany's history they fairly rocked the building with cheers. The picture opens in quiet, peaceful Belgium. We see flocks of sheep calmly grazing in green meadows, the peasants carrying on their various humble vocations and the good old village blacksmith at his forge. We see a Belgian maid being led to the altar by a big peasant boy, and the happy smiling faces that accompany them as they wend their way to the parish. Then came the crash, titanic, colossal—staggering. Joy died. Hope fled. Desolation became supreme. Up on that day the world passed into twilight. The baneful autocracy of Prussia had spoken. By a trick of circumstances the weal of mankind was placed for a moment in the hand of an arrogant egotist, tyrant, madman—William of Hohenzollern. The greatest crime in all history was perpetrated that one man might find for himself a place in the sun. Blinded by the gods there flashed forth in the mind of this one man a madness, a fatuity, a mania fatal, malignant, satanic. From beyond the dim horizons began the tireless thudding of guns. The rich fields, the peaceful farm, the busy city, became the barracks, the arsenal and the hospital. In two years 22,000,000 men were maimed, killed or made prisoners. Twenty-two million families mourned and hungered and suffered.

But there was another man who lived in the White House, the chief and spokesman of a great nation that believes all people were born free and equal, with a right to peace and happiness. And so the end came, and when the echo of the last cannon had died upon the air, the silver-throated bells of all the world rang forth the glad tidings: "William of Hohenzollern has fallen."

If those of you who could not get into the Globe Theatre Sunday will try again today or Tuesday and are fortunate enough to witness this marvelous spectacle, you will be fully rewarded and witness the greatest photoplay, without exception, ever screened.

Only a pro-German or a misinformed American will scoff at the efforts of the government to conserve the food supply of the nation.

What Has Your Red Cross Money Done?

IN the first place, it has enabled the American people, through the Red Cross, to help care for its army and navy.

Secondly, it has enabled America to hearten her Allies' fighting forces and to keep up, among the civilian populations, the spirit to win the war. That, alone, has made the American Red Cross one of the largest factors since our entry into the war.

Canteens which provided food and hot drinks—more than a million meals to soldiers in December; warehouses, crammed with materials, situated all along the French line, all along the Italian lines, at seaports and at places where our soldiers are going to fight; institutions for the care of consumptives, institutions for the re-education of maimed men—these are a few of the concrete accomplishments abroad.

At home—the millions of woolen sweaters, mufflers, socks and other comforts for the men in camps; the work of sanitation around cantonments and the help and advice given dependents of soldiers and sailors—these are things which will "make you, your children and your children's children, in whatever part of the world they may be, proud of being Americans."

Will you do your share to keep this Hand of Mercy at its work?

Every cent of every dollar received for the Red Cross War Fund goes for War Relief.

The American Red Cross is the largest and most efficient organization for the relief of suffering that the world has ever seen. It is made up almost entirely of volunteer workers, the higher executives being without exception men accustomed to large affairs, who are in almost all cases giving their services without pay. It is supported entirely by its membership fees and by voluntary contributions. It is today bringing relief to suffering humanity, both military and civil, in every War torn allied country. It plans tomorrow to help in the work of restoration throughout the world.

It feeds and clothes entire populations in times of great calamity. It is there to help your soldier boy in his time of need. With its thousands of workers, its tremendous stores and smooth running transportation facilities it is serving as America's advance guard—and thus helping to win the war. Congress authorizes it. President Wilson heads it. The War Department audits its accounts. Your Army, your Navy and your Allies enthusiastically endorse it. Twenty-two million Americans have joined it.
