

SHEDD NEWS

SHEDD, May 13.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Grover Nicewood and daughter Dorothy arrived at Shedd Sunday noon, stopping at the home of Robt. Arnold, where they spent a few days visiting. Mr. Nicewood expects to get work around here soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Kennedy surprised the people around here by their sudden appearance Tuesday evening, when they came driving around to Mrs. Kennedy's mother's home, Mrs. Dora Davis. They were glad to get back to their old home place and their many friends were glad to see them again. They have been living in Seattle, Wash., the past year.

Mrs. Kate Croft has been quite ill with measles but is recovering now.

Mrs. May Robinson and Baxter Young motored to Albany Tuesday, returning home in the afternoon.

Miss Vera Cornett is quite ill with measles.

Grand-grandpa Morgason accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Emma Coon, returned home after a few days' visit with his son, Ed Morgason of Portland, last Tuesday.

Mrs. Bertha and Grover Nicewood and daughter Dorothy motored to Scot Nicewood's place west of Halsey for a few days' visit. They have been visiting at the Robt. Arnold home the past few days.

The Red Cross held its regular meeting Wednesday in the W. O. W.

hall banquet room. Lots of work is being done at this time.

The farmers are almost through sowing now.

The last rain was needed very much and a little more would not hurt anything.

The Boy Scouts have a new piano in their hall now which adds greatly to their orchestra work. They also have a new teacher, Mr. Sox of Albany, who is taking Everett Moses' place. The orchestra expects to be ready to give a few concerts this summer.

The hippodrome orchestra will give a big drama next Wednesday evening, May 15th, in the W. O. W. hall. The proceeds will be used to help pay for the piano that was purchased for the W. O. W. hall last winter by the orchestra.

Chas. Troutman and family are planning on moving to Shedd for the summer.

The U. P. Christian Endeavor society is quite busy preparing for the county endeavor convention, which will be held here next May 17-18-19. A large delegation is expected.
