Two Varieties of Beer for the Brave Marines

NEW YORK, May 27.—(Special)—Beer for the marines!

This is the rather startling announcement made from the local U. S. marine recruiting station. It won't make much of a hit with prohibitionists, but it's a fact.

While men in other branches of the service will be compelled to stick to water, the marines will have beer on hand all the time, in fact two Beers; to be exact, Otto A., 23 years old and his brother, Warren M., 24.

These two lads with the wet name applied for enlistment and were accepted.

LIBERTY BREAD

Steamed Bread

1-2 c. cornmeal
1-2 c. cornflour
1-2 c. outflour
1-1-2 c. sour milk
3-4 t. salt
1 t. soda
1-3 c. molasses
1-2 c. raisins (if desired)

Mix dry ingredients and combine with the rest of the material. Fill can 2-3 full and steam 11-2 hours. Makes one loaf.

THE BOY IN KHAKI

By K. C. B.

I saw a mother.
And her brown clad boy.
And heard her sob.
And "Goodby, son."
And saw him.
Kiss her tears away.
And go.

And hours passed.
And in the darkness.
Of my room.
I lay.
And all the pictures.
That the day had drawn.
Came back.
And she was there.
And he was there.

And then a picture.
From across the sea.
Was painted.
On my shadow wall.
And he was there.
And all about him.
There were shadow men.
But nowhere.
Could I find the face.
Nor find the form.
Of her.

And then.
Another picture came.
A great Red Cross.
And wounded men.
Looked up at it.
And raised their arms.
And smiled.
And he was there.
And as I gazed.

Upon the cross.
I saw Her face.
And so it was.
That in the darkness.
Of my room.
It came to me.
That Red Cross work.
Across the sea.
Was mother's work.
In other hands.
And done for her.
And then sleep came.
And came a dream.
And cheering throng.
And boys come home.
And he was there.
And she was there.
And once again.
I heard Her sob.
And saw Him.
Kiss Her tears away.

And in their wake.
On that glad day.
A Red Cross waved.
As it had waved.
And followed Him.
Down in the Valley.
And come back again.

I THANK YOU

LOVELY TELEGRAPH MYSTERY AT SANTA FE TANK STATION

The train crew on the Santa Fe called him "the hermit of Chaparral," the most Godforsaken station on the entire Santa Fe, in the Triangle play, "Because of a Woman" at the Rolfe Theater Tuesday. He was a mystery to them all for he did not look like the usual telegraph operator found along the desert run.

No one knew from whence he came. They had begun to notice him at the side of the lonely shack waving them on their way as the big mogul pulled its heavy load of passengers past the station. "There's some story behind all this," declared the engineer of the limited to the fireman as they pulled through Chaparral one day. But little did they guess the story of a great love and a greater sacrifice which had brought the man of mystery to this desert shack.

The reward fate had in store for the young hermit and how he was repaid for his suffering and exile are the big surprises in this Triangle photodrama, which opens in West Virginia, jumps to the desert and closes in the romantic South.

NOTICE

$15,000 for Albany College

Is this community's part of $25,000 which must be provided to meet the synod's requirement respecting the College's indebtedness.

Why the Debt?

Because five years' Campaigning for a quarter-million endowment cost many thousands. Also, the government's standardization requirements cost about $10,000 for new equipment.

How to Raise the Debt

We will ask for $15,000 Liberty Bonds. If the people give them, good. If they will only loan them for five years, the trustees will endeavor to raise the money so as to return the bonds to the lenders at the end of five years. But GIVE THEM OUTRIGHT if possible.

Will the College Stay in Albany?

WE THINK SO. We are asking these subscriptions on this condition. Get ready to GIVE.

Keep the College in Albany
