RELIGIOUS CO-OPERATION

The Catholic church and the salvation army have not been comrades exactly, in the past. There hasn't been much sympathy or cooperation.

Recently the Salvation Army undertook to raise a war fund in New York City. And from no quarter did it receive more generous support than from the Catholic church. The pastor of St. Patrick's Cathedral, secretary to Cardinal Farley, addressed an appeal to all the Catholics in his diocese, pointing out that the war has brought Jew and Gentile, Catholic and Protestant, shoulder to shoulder, waiving religious differences and standing together in every patriotic enterprise.

"We Catholics," he said, "appreciate cordially the aid we have received from our non-Catholic fellow-citizens in the Catholic War Drive; consequently we are deeply concerned in the success of the Salvation Army's present drive. I wish it well, and shall lend it every assistance. We know that the money raised—like that of the Y. M. C. A. and the Jewish Society —will be wisely used for the welfare and comfort of our soldiers on the battlefield."

The spirit of unanimity and sympathy among religious organizations exemplified by this incident is one of the finest fruits of the war. And like so many incidental benefits, it will not be lost. We shall understand each other better hereafter.

SALTS IF BACKACHE AND KIDNEYS HURT

Drink lots of water and stop eating meat for a while if your bladder troubles you.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority.
Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effevescent lithia-water drink.
