PAULINE FREDERICK AT THE GLOBE

When asked her opinion on "the actress of tomorrow," Pauline Frederick recently said at the Paramount studios, where she was posing for the photoplay, "Mrs. Dane's Defense": "The actress of tomorrow? Ah, she will be a wonderful all-around sort of a woman."

If ever there was an actress who could reach the high standard set by Miss Frederick, it is her beautiful self—for Pauline Frederick is one of the most accomplished stars of filmdom, being a fluent linguist, something of an artist, an adept at cooking and household "arts" as well as an all-around sportswoman. "Mrs. Dane's Defense," which is her latest Paramount photoplay, is to be shown at the Globe Theater today and Saturday.
