

SOCIAL

Events this week have been leading up to, and centering around, commencement. Musicals, picnics and other affairs preceding graduation exercises have taken place. Class day, observed Friday, was a clever and novel event of the week occurring in the high school and in the charge of the senior class.

The senior play was also an event worth mentioning. It was given Tuesday at the Globe and proved very successful with the splendid cast of characters.

A charmingly informal affair was the knitting tea presided over this afternoon by Mrs. C. V. Little, complimenting Mrs. S. D. Herring of Seattle. Pretty blossoms about the rooms lent their atmosphere of spring. Light refreshments marked the close of a pleasant afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Willard entertained Friday evening in a most delightful manner. The Neos Nymphs club members and several additional friends were guests at their home and enjoyed a picnicking party on the lawn. A sumptuous supper was served indoors. Among the complimented guests were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harom, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Willard and Lural Burgrat.

That a number of friends might meet her house-guest, Mrs. S. D. Herring of Seattle, Mrs. Charles H. Cusick asked a few friends to spend Wednesday evening at her home. Knitting was the popular diversion and at a late hour, tea was served.

The girls of the Alpha Nu crowd were guests to dinner Friday evening with Miss Kamilla Kroschel as hostess. A gay social time followed the delicious dinner. Spring flowers were used about the rooms in decoration.

The freshman class of Junior high gave a picnic Friday evening in Bryants Park. The usual diversions and feasting and general good time were enjoyed by the large crowd present.

Mrs. Charles L. Monson is entertaining as her guests this week-end, her sister, Mrs. J. S. McCord and daughter Lois, of Portland.

A dance will be given at the armory tonight by the Woodmen of the World as a Red Cross benefit. The affair has been well planned and a large crowd is expected to attend. Good music will be furnished and the jitney dance plan will be used in collecting tickets.

On Saturday of last week a crowd of little folks enjoyed a picnic in Bryants Park, chaperoned by Miss Stella Hoover. Games, a large bonfire and a delicious picnic lunch were the pleasures of the day.

A group of girls from the club of the fifth grade at Madison school gave a picnic Wednesday evening at Bryants Park. A jolly time was spent in the usual diversions and the evening was closed by a picnic lunch.

A cleverly planned Red Cross benefit dance was an event of Friday night given in the spacious barn of the E. F. Anderson farm, nine miles south of Albany. Crowds motored out and spent the evening in the enjoyable diversion. The dances were in form of
