This week, as commencement week, has been filled with numerous festivities. The commencement exercises of the college took place at the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening of this week. The handsomely decorated church added to the features of the evening, and a splendid program was given.

On Wednesday evening at the Methodist church the graduating class of the high school held their exercises. Quantities of spring flowers arranged in baskets and vases prettily decorated the church, with profusions of bachelor buttons and other blossoms in quantity. The bouquets of the class were made up of pink and white sweetpeas, the class flower, mixed with white baby's breath. The evening's excellent program was given and the diplomas presented.

An elaborate and handsomely appointed banquet was given in the St. Francis Hotel, Thursday evening, by the graduating class of the high school. The lovely table appointments were carried out in the dainty pink color scheme, roses of this color centering the table and a delicate pink blossomed vine gracefully trailing from the center to the ends of the table. Places were arranged for about 40 guests. During the six-course dinner served, several clever toasts were given by the class members. Later dancing was enjoyed in the reception room.

One of the most attractive and in every way delightful of this season's social gaieties was the dancing party of Friday evening for which Miss Marcel Austin and Miss Nathiel Bonaca were the charming hostesses. About 25 couples were guests of the evening and the K. of P. hall, in an elaborate garb of the season's blossoms, with quantities of bachelor buttons in many corners, was the scene of this affair. Two clever and novel feature dances added to the pleasures of the evening. Punch was served to the dancers during the evening and at a late hour a dainty lunch was served.

A most perfectly appointed, informal little dinner party was presided over this week on Tuesday evening by Mrs. Charles H. Cusick, in compliment to her houseguest, Mrs. S. D. Herridge of Seattle. The prettily-adorned dinner table was centered by roses of pink shades. The remainder of the evening was passed in a pleasant social way.

Rocky Mason home, one of this season's loveliest dinner parties was presided over Thursday evening by Miss Flora Mason when she entertained for the pleasure of Miss Gertrude Buehler, Miss Jessie Paynter and Miss Edna Metcalf. The attractive garden surroundings were in pleasant harmony with the perfectly appointed dinner tables, adorned with pretty blossoms.

At a charming little affair presided over Tuesday evening by Miss Esther McChesney, the engagement of Miss Edna Cowles to Dale Smith, was made known. Several girl friends called to spend the evening in knitting and social diversion. A dainty lunch was served at a prettily appointed table where a huge bouquet of pink sweet-peas formed the centerpiece, extending from which were pink ribbons to each place. The ribbons were taken out by the guests and at the end of each was a little heart, revealing the news of the engagement. Candles shaded in pink also added their charm to the table decorations.

The bride-elect is a lovely girl, well known and popular in Albany circles. Mr. Smith recently joined the navy and is now waiting for a call. He has been in the employ of the Cusick bank.

A novel and enjoyable affair was the out-of-doors breakfast given Thursday morning in Bryants' Park, with Miss Josephine Lee as hostess. Miss Mona McClain, of Mill City, who is the house guest of Miss Lee, was the inspiration for this affair.

The girls of the Alpha Nu club and several additional guests spent Thursday evening in a jolly way, picnicking in Bryants' Park. A delicious picnic lunch, singing and a huge bonfire made the evening's hours pass most delightfully to the 17 guests present.

On Monday evening of this week the faculty of Albany college entertained with a reception, for the pleasure of the students. The affair took place at the home of Miss Elizabeth Irvine. A social time made the evening hours pass enjoyably.

Mrs. H. H. Bell of California, sister of Rev. W. P. White, was the inspiration for a most charming reception Thursday afternoon, given by the Ladies' Missionary Society of the United Presbyterian church. The room where the affair took place was beautifully decorated with profusions of pink roses, baby breath and fernery, in baskets. Adding to the elaborate decorations, the table where punch and wafers were served was also adorned with an abundance of roses and greenery. During the course of the afternoon a short and excellent program was given, several numbers of which were composed of a vocal trio by Mrs. W. H. Rhodes, Mrs. F. P. Nutting and Mrs. C. E. Sox, with the organ accompaniment played by Miss Florence Rutter. Mrs. H. H. Bell gave an interesting address to the missionary society.

Companiment played by Miss Florence Rutter. Mrs. H. H. Bell gave an interesting address to the missionary society. Composing the reception committee were the following: Mrs. J. H. Rutter, Mrs. Everett Fisher, Mrs. Hayne, Miss Laura McBride, Mrs. S. E. Young, Mrs. I. E. Blain, Mrs. E. F. Sox, Mrs. Braden and Mrs. Davis.

Miss Irene Barrett was hostess to a number of friends Wednesday night after the commencement exercises. The jolly crowd spent an enjoyable time in dancing, later light refreshments being served.

A very interesting meeting of the P. E. O. Sisterhood was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. H. S. Logan. After the usual business session, a pleasant social time was enjoyed with Mrs. Wilson of Cherokee, Iowa, who is a member of the chapter in that city, as honor guest.

The juniors of the United Presbyterian church gave a jolly picnicking party Friday evening. The usual diversions were enjoyed and a picnic lunch served.

On Wednesday afternoon the Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. George H. Bennett and passed an interesting time. The afternoon's program, under the leadership of Miss Minnie Porter, was on the topic of India. Mrs. Fox, a former missionary to India, gave a most delightful talk, giving many of her experiences of about 20 years ago.

Society is making preparations for the Red Cross Business Carnival, a novel and clever affair which will be
