THE TWO KAISERS' NEW PLOT

That new treaty of alliance between Germany and Austria is an incredible document. As published in the Deutsche Volks Zeitung, it constitutes "a close military alliance for 25 years, during which both parties of the alliance pledge themselves to employ the entire strength of their peoples for military purposes." And the "parties," be it noted, are merely Kaiser Wilhelm and Kaiser Karl.

It is expressly provided that the two Kaisers "shall devote all their care to have their armies enter into an eventual future conflict fully prepared and at a maximum of their strength," because "only thus the future war shall be of brief duration."

Both nations are to be organized on an absolute military basis. All able-bodied males are to receive thorough military instruction, and all the rest are to be organized for "auxiliary service" in the production of arms, ammunition, etc.

In organization and in the planning of campaigns and employment of troops there shall be entire unity, and "the initiative shall be left principally to Germany." Troops, supplies, railroads, industrial resources, etc., shall be pooled. Soldiers and officers are to be mixed, making one great army.

The threat to the whole non-German world is self-evident. Germany is already planning for the "next war" and intends to use for it all the power of Germany, Austria-Hungary and the rich, populous Russian provinces she has seized. Recognizing that she cannot gain her goal of world-dominion in this war, she seeks to win it in another war, greater and more terrible, to be fought as soon as she can recover her strength and complete the vast preparations required.

The threat to the independent life of Austria-Hungary is just as evident. And in that fact lies the greatest immediate obstacle to Germany's success. Most of the nationalities composing the Austro-Hungarian Empire are growing restive under German domination. They bitterly resent this treaty which would make the Prussians completely their masters and deprive them of the last hope of freedom and independence. They do not care to toil like slaves and to die like flies merely to contribute to the evil glory of the Hohenzollern family. And so, from every quarter of their crazy, shaky empire, come signs of rebellion. Their discontent has thus far rendered impossible the expected drive against Italy and their participation in the big battle in France. There may soon be open revolt.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre at Once.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, migitation or prevention of disease.

HAVE ROSY CHEEKS AND FEEL FRESH AS A DAISY—TRY THIS!

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

To see the tinge of healthy bloom in your face, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, to wake up without a headache, backache, coated tongue or a nasty breath, in fact to feel your best, day in and day out, just try inside-bathing every morning for one week.

Before breakfast each day, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it as a harmless means of washing from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the blood and internal organs. Those who are subject to constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, rheumatic twinges, also those whose skin is sallow and complexion pallid, are assured that one week of inside-bathing will have them both looking and feeling better in every way.
