Japanese Hero Worship.

The Japanese are a hero-worshipping people who treasure their own past. American history has none of the picturesque atmosphere that adorns feudal Japan, still an actuality in the lives of many of the grandfathers of young people now in school. Through their tales, history is fresh. No alchemy compounded of modern disillusion can convince the young Japanese that the glamor of the past is not all gold. The rich brocades and gorgeous attire of the feudal lords of the Tokugawa days, the beautiful elaboration of temple and palace, the exquisite art and craft productions, the ritual of elegant ceremony attached to court life, the ancient ideal of Bushido, or knightly conduct, everywhere encountered in allusions to heroic and loyal deeds, all lend their vibrancy to old Japan.

His Day Cut Short.

"I don't understand this law business." "Huh?" "They said I was to have my day in court. All the neighbors turned out." "Well?" "The judge disposed of my case in less than a minute."

Evasive.

"Did your husband speak of the punch he got at our house?" "Well, I must say he came home just full of it."

HEADACHE is one of the greatest annoyances to civilized mankind. Fifty-six per cent of all headaches are the result of a refractive error. When you take medicine for these headaches you injure your generative system without permanent relief. Remove the cause with proper glasses and you remove the effect.
