EMPEY HAS AUDIENCE OF MANY MILLIONS

Three million people have to date read Sergeant Empey's book, "Over the Top," according to statements by G. P. Putnam & Sons, publishers. This number is in addition to the 25,000,000 who are daily reading the syndicated story of "Over the Top" and the special articles by Empey. Another of Empey's war masterpieces has just come from the Putnam presses and is going into circulation.

Sergeant Empey himself will be seen in "Over the Top" for the last time tonight at the Rolfe Theater.

JULIAN ELTINGE'S DEBUT WAS WITH BOSTON CADETS

Julian Eltinge, the noted feminine impersonator who is appearing in the Paramount photoplay, "The Widow's Might," at the Globe Theater, began his career almost by accident. There was to be a play given by the Boston Cadets, an organization of which Mr. Eltinge was at that time a member—and some one was needed in a hurry to play the part of a young woman in "Miss Simplicity." Eltinge, having as his chief qualification a notably pink and white complexion, essayed the part and made such a success of it that he was never again allowed to appear on the stage as anything else but a woman—and before long became prominent in amateur theatricals and later in the profession.

GLASS OF SALTS IF YOUR KIDNEYS HURT

Get less meat if you feel Backache or have Bladder trouble—Salts fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which exerts and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poisons, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night. To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

NOT BOTHERED BY WORRY

Trouble in Colored Man's Case Most Certainly Did Not Induce Insomnia.

Representative Carter of Oklahoma was telling some of his colleagues in the cloakroom of the house the other day a story of a negro in his state who, under persuasion perhaps, had forsaken the Republican party and cast his fortunes with the Democrats, says the Washington Post. He gained a local reputation and soon his former associates in the old organization began to talk among themselves. Finally they determined to get the deserter back, if possible. A committee went to the recalcitrant and urged him to come back, but the Democrat was stubborn.

"Well, if you don't give up your hands and feet, put a gag in your mouth and take you down to the old cave you know about and drop you in," they threatened.

The threat had its effect to the extent that in confidence the deserter told a white friend, a lawyer, of what he had been told.

"Don't pay any attention to them," advised the lawyer. "They wouldn't attempt anything like that."

But the negro wasn't satisfied. He continued talking about what his brethren were going to do to him.

"If they were to do anything like that," said the lawyer, "they would be arrested, and if you should be found dead they would be hanged."

"That's all right," said the negro. "But it wouldn't do me no good to have 'em hanging if I was dead."

"I knew there had been something wrong with you," said the lawyer. "I have seen you brooding for some time, and if you don't stop it the first thing you know you will go out and commit suicide over your troubles."

"Now, indeed," said the negro. "I ain't no chance of dat! Whenever I gits to worryin' 'bout mah troubles I jes' natchilly goes to sleep."

final scenes to find a blizzard. Now although the picture was taken at the time of year when in most parts of the county blizzards are the prevailing fashion, there were none in Southern California—consequently the Lasky company requested the weather bureau to page a blizzard. Finally one was discovered high in the mountains and the company, including Mr. Reid and Miss King, dashed from the studio by automobile to the storm center, expecting to film the scenes and return the same day. After filming the scenes they started to return and found the pass had been snowed in and the entire company, clad only in summer clothes, went to bed in a small mountain hotel and it was two days before they escaped.
