LAWYER ESCAPES CATTLE MAN WHO GOES MAD

A horse, white with lather, clattered up to the sheriff's office in Pyramid, and a weary little man slipped from its back into the arms of the gathering crowd, in the Triangle play, "The Law's Outlaw," featuring Roy Stewart at the Rolfe Theater on Wednesday and Thursday.

"Charlie Easton," gasped the little man. "He's gone crazy and slain Sheriff Ransford in cold blood. I saw him do it, and then he drove me from the camp at the point of a gun!" A thrill swept the district attorney's audience, for the little man was none other than Clarence Cecil Hartley who had accompanied Sheriff Ransford and Charles Easton in their search for the mysterious assailants of old Oscar Davidson, the town's richest man, who had been cruelly beaten and robbed of several thousand dollars.

The entire county was aroused by Hartley's story and the supervisors voted a reward of $1,000 for Easton dead or alive. A posse was formed and, armed to the teeth, began a search for the formed deputy. How Charlie Easton, hunted by the law, succeeded in bringing two villains to justice and escaping the noose himself is the big surprise of this latest Triangle drama of life in the cattle country.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Poultry Situation in Oregon Is Serious

CORVALLIS, June 26.—(Special)—That the poultry situation in Oregon is more or less critical is the belief of many producers in the state. The prevailing high prices of feed in the winter and spring months caused persons to sell hens in large numbers, it is said.

"If this is true," commented C. S. Brewster of O. A. C., secretary of the Oregon Poultry Producers' association, "and the practice is continued, it will do much to bring about exorbitant prices for poultry and eggs in the future, due to a limited supply, and will do a great injury to the whole industry by depleting the supply of breeding stock."

A meeting of the Oregon Poultry Producers' association will be held Thursday afternoon in the Multnomah Hotel, Portland, at which time the general situation will be discussed. The meeting will start with a luncheon at 1 o'clock.

Pro-Germans probably think the W. S. S. campaign a foolish one.

Waterloo Sunday School Rally Sunday JUNE 30th

Big Annual All Day Service

Last year was the first meeting of this extraordinary rural Sunday school gathering. It was probably the largest open air meeting of its kind ever held in the county. Six hundred people participated in the gathering, and many of these reported it the "greatest day of its kind they had ever seen."

This year the meeting will be held on the last day of this month—Sunday, June 30th. It is under the auspices of the American Sunday School Union. The program will begin at 10:30 a. m. with song service accompanied by an orchestra.

The program will be varied and full of instruction and interest. Dinner will be served by the ladies from the baskets brought by the people.

One of the most valuable features of the day will be an address by Dr. W. P. White of this city on "Inspiration and Authority of Scripture Versus Hun False Philosophy and Theology." Dr. White will show the peril of Prussian Kultur and disclose the cause of the war. Last year the following rural Sunday schools attended in a body: Crowfoot, Fairview, Happy Home, Mt. Hope and Greenville Unions, Middle Ridge, Sodaville, Berlin, LaComb and Waterloo Sunday schools. These will all again be in attendance and all Sunday schools and people are cordially invited.

We would suggest that the Sunday Schools of Albany send representatives. There will be a Service Flag period and any town or city Sunday school sending a delegation may help decorate the service flag with stars representing their boys at war from their school.
