MIX KNOWS COWBOYS

Can Tell City Born and Others at a Glance

If there are any who should be told, let it be said to them at once, "Do not miss the splendid performance that ends its run today at the Rolfe Theater. See Tom Mix in the William Fox photoplay "Six Shooter Andy."

This is a play that is unusual and will give you a new insight into what the makers of this country went through. But more than that, it will show you the type of man of big body and heart and mind, who did the work of taking the wilderness away from the bands of outlaws that roamed the great West. Here is the case of the organizer of robbery and murder who sits in the chair of the sheriff and who is only ousted from it when he meets a man who is so worthy and honest and clever with his gun that he is a match for the whole organized band of corruption.

Tom Mix is surrounded by a splendid cast. Enid Markey and the clever young actors and actresses who are her brothers and sisters, and Sam de Grasse, as the vicious and brutal sheriff, make up a splendid cast.

OUR COUNTRY'S ENEMIES FOXY

They work in the dark and strike a man down from behind. In "The Thing

We Love" there is graphically portrayed a Hun plot to injure this country and our allies, and the way one strong young man and his sweetheart were able to prevent a terrible explosion is shown with vivid intensity. Be sure to see this production at the Globe Theater Wednesday and Thursday.

Advertising Momentum

Many institutions expect advertising to perform miracles, to rehabilitate a depleted list of customers in a few weeks or harvest a golden crop of dollars. Advertising is not based on wizardry any more than on quackery. Its results are cumulative.

There are no miracles in advertising, but money so invested, if yielded properly and the opportunities thus created properly followed, will yield handsome returns.

An inquiry from a prospect who has never transacted business with your organization is the most vital and the most potent factor in the success of your business. That inquiry represents growth, development new business, —and new inquiries, are worth attention, study and care—the full measure of your service. The aggressive and consistent advertiser whose educational publicity attracts, will find that the business has acquired a new momentum, the effect of which will be apparent in succeeding years.
