absence of almost an entire year from the screen, Mae Marsh, who won world wide popularity in "The Birth of a Nation" and "Intolerance," comes again to greet her huge throngs of admirers in one of the most beautiful and elaborate productions ever made for the screen.

The production abounds in sentiment and thrills. There is the burning of the main tent and the stampede of the audience. And there is a love story of greater charm and beauty than you have ever before seen upon the screen.

On Way Home—

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Orr and children of Lebanon were in Albany this morning on their way home from Harrisburg where they visited Mrs. Orr's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Beyer. They were accompanied to Albany by Mrs. Beyer.
