GLADYS BROCKWELL AT THE ROLFE SUNDAY

Fate leads a young French noblewoman through strange paths before leading her to happiness in the Fox photoplay, "The Devil's Wheel," which will be shown at the Rolfe Theater Sunday for a run of two days. As the heppine who passes from the secluded life of an old chateau to become a leader in the Parisian underworld, Gladys Brockwell registers a momentous performance.

A beautiful French girl is abducted and taken to a den in the slums. In the struggle she is injured so that she loses her memory, retaining only her knowledge of an infallible system for winning at roulette. She is happy in the new life till an accident gives her back her memory and restores her to her old life, wiping out of the recollection of her career among the Apaches. But something troubles her mind and it is not till a note from the leader of the gangsters is brought to her that she finds where her true happiness lies.

MIRTH-PROVOKING IS LOVE LOOPS TH' LOOP

The new Paramount-Mack Sennett comedy, "Love Loops the Loop," featuring Charles Murray, Wayland Trask and May Thurman, is not only a mirth-provoking picture, but one filled with unusual thrills as well. In this comedy May Thurman, who im-personates a cabaret girl and whose beauty inspires all the gentlemen she meets with love, loops the loop in a most daring fashion and at the peril of her life, on roller skates. The most daring circus athlete would think twice before attempting this feat, but May Thurman never was a circus athlete, but in college she surpassed in athletics, and courage did the rest for her.

This is a splendid side-splitting comedy, some of the fun-making devices being of that character that they cannot be described. It is enough to say that the comedy is fast and furious and will be heartily relished by all Milholten celebrated her 11th birthday as hostess to a number of little friends. The crowd spent the afternoon in Bryants' Park with games and other diversions taking up the time. Light refreshments brought the afternoon to a close. Many lovely gifts were received by the honor guest. The guests were Pearl Dudley, Berthina Hopper, Georgia Wright, Helen Powell, Dorothy Robnett, Elva Milholten, Lois Hall, Dorothy Hughes, Ella Whetstone, Evelyn Palmer, Hearthel Hofflich, Bertha and Lovine Milholten. Mrs. Walter Milholten and

Model 90—Everything For Complete Satisfaction

Follow this infallible test when selecting your car, based upon the experiences of thousands of owners.

—who unanimously agree these five essentials are imperative for complete satisfaction;

First for consideration, if not first in importance, is Appearance.

Overland Model 90 leaves nothing to be desired, with its big-car stylish design, correct color scheme and exquisite finish.

It is the powerful, sweet-running motor and efficient Performance of this easy-to-handle Model 90 that, more than anything else, is responsible for its great popularity. More than 100,000 are already sold.

It is sparing with fuel and saving of tires and, above all, is adequate.

The Comfort of the Model 90 is best appreciated by veteran motorists. It has wide, extra cushioned seats, deep upholstery, spacious interior, ample leg room, cantilever springs, and large tires, non-skid rear. These factors combined with the scientific distribution of weight produce maximum comfort.

Those who have owned cars for years will tell you nothing is more important than the Service the company and local dealer behind the car are able and willing to render.

No matter where you live or tour, expert Overland service is always accessible. This guarantees satisfaction in your car and protection of your investment.

The fifth essential that must be satisfactory is Price. Because Model 90 does completely give the desired appearance, performance, comfort and service, its modest price makes it even more of a remarkable bargain.

With this Overland, you can save hours and energy, benefit your health and make your life richer and fuller.
Order your Model 90 now.
