FACE IN THE DARK

STARS MAE MARSH

Goldwyn's determination to present Mae Marsh in the most powerful plays available is responsible for the choice of Irvin S. Cobb's compelling story, "The Face in the Dark," which comes to the Rolfe Friday.

The young star grasps every opportunity devised by the brilliant storyteller to sound the deepest emotions as Jane Ridgeway, daughter of a celebrated secret service man. Her father, whom she adores, has supposedly retired from the service, giving all his time to his post of bank examiner. She does not know that he is in league with a band of counterfeiters whose work is as original as it is daring. The outer doors of vaults are forced while the inner doors remain closed. Actually the inner doors are opened, the money removed and in its place a similar amount of counterfeit currency left. This money is supplied by a mysterious man, the head of the gang, whose face remains in shadow at their conferences. A glaring light is the screen behind which he hides. He is the face in the dark.

This Electric Range Will Save Coal for Uncle Sam and Time and Labor for You

Careful tests have shown that 262.7 pounds of coal are required by a central station to supply a family with cooking current equivalent to 800 pounds of coal consumed in a solid fuel range. An electric range will do your cooking better and save on your food bill. The elimination of the fuel and ash problem saves a world of time and labor. Arrange to install an electric range in your home today.
