HUNTS TROUBLE; GETS IT IN HUN PLOT CAMP

One of the snappiest dramas ever seen on the screen is "Up Romance Road," William Russell's latest vehicle. It is a Mutual play from Russell's studios.

Mr. Russell is cast as a rich young man for whom everything has been coming too easy all his life and who is now determined to get action even if he has to go gunning for it.

Gregory Thorne, whom Russell impersonates, finds himself engaged to a rich and beautiful girl with the entire approval of the parents on both sides. This strikes him as too tame and he insists that they establish a family feud in some way so that he may overcome all obstacles and win a wife man-fashion.

In the course of his brief career as trouble seeker he runs into a nest of German spies, captures the ringleader, prevents an explosion and eventually settles down with the rich young bride after looping the loop in sensational style with the young lady's papa.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or have bladder trouble—Take glass of Salta.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of searing, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salta from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salta is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salta is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.
