HERO CHOSE HEROIC MEANS FOR SUICIDE

LONDON, Aug. 9.—The strain of living up to his reputation proved too much for Master George Harris.

At the Guildhall recently he was bound over for 12 months, after attempting to commit suicide.

Since the age of 13 this boy has had an extraordinary career of adventure. He was at Antwerp when it was taken by the Germans, escaped from there and afterwards accompanied Sgt. O'Leary, the famous Irish V. C., and attracted much notice by addressing recruiting meetings at Hyde Park and other places.

Several people interested themselves in the boy and he obtained an excellent position. He lost it because he was suspected of theft.

The thought of his friends' disappointment weighed so much on his mind that he tried to kill himself by drinking a concoction of phosphorus match-ends mixed with vinegar and various other evil-tasting ingredients.
