BELLS AND SHELLS

Germany is beginning to pay, very mildly so far of course, but still being mildly so far the piper for her orgies of the past four years.

For her spoliation of the beauty of Belgium no penalty has yet been exacted. That Fate will take a hand in this, as in the other matters, can not be doubted.

The Delineator has this month a page of pictures of stately and exquisite Belgian belltowers from which the bells have been removed to make German shells.

For all this, Germany must pay. We are a generous people to our foes, particularly when the foes are beaten.

Much of the beauty destroyed cannot be replaced, particularly by a race incapable of producing or appreciating beauty.

PUBLICITY AND FRIENDSHIPS

The United States Committee on Public Information has an office in Chile. Through the press of that country it is working for more complete understanding of our growing need of each other.

An editorial in a leading Chilean paper welcomes this United States publicity bureau. It speaks of the significant friendship existing between the two governments.

"The people of the United States could not have chosen a better medium than the public press of Chile for a direct appeal to the people.

"The principles which the allies defend are ideals which concern all individuals, the same as all nations, and all races because they are essentially human.

This welcome is in itself an assurance that the friendship and good will are already there.

It's all very well for the men to brag that they can get along without cuffbuttons if they put that tax on luxuries.
