There will be showings daily at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m.

The Lee children, who have been widely advertised as the Fox "baby grands" and who have been seen previously as stars in "Two Little Imps" and "Troublemakers," appear in this play as orphans, the scenes being laid in an orphanage and subsequently in an army camp. The action hinges chiefly on the troublesome question of their parentage.

Aside from the fun features developed by the pranks of Jane and Katherine, there is said to be a strong plot covering the dramatic phases of the production. A colonel's daughter is courted by an army captain and by a former Austrian officer, now doing duty as a spy.

Jane detects him and raises an outcry which results in his being shot and in a deathbed confession that he is the father of the children and that their mother is an older daughter of the colonel.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Holloway entertained at dinner Wednesday evening at their home on Sixth street, as a compliment to their cousin, Miss Bessie Wolfe of Algona, Iowa, who will leave for Idaho next week after spending several weeks in Albany. The dining room was tastefully decorated in orange and a huge bouquet of nasturtiums adorned the table. Covers were laid for the Misses Lillian, Lena and Minnie Peacock, Bessie Wolfe, Amy Marsters, Violet Pearce, Mrs. Marsters, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Holloway. Music formed the diversion of the evening.

Misses Susan and Ivy Batis were hostesses this week to a birthday party given in honor of their niece, little Miss Edna Mae Paul, who is visiting here with her mother, Mrs. P. M. Paul from Wilburton, Oklahoma. A number of little guests spent the jolly afternoon in games and music, completed with dainty refreshments. Edna Mae was remembered with many pretty gifts from the guests. Miss Dorothy Hackleman of Eastern Oregon was an honored guest.

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of leftover waste, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject. Remember, inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.
