MISFITS

By F. P. N.

A man at breakfast this morning said to the girl: "I'll take a couple eggs, one turned, the other not." The girl said: "Which one?"

A man I met yesterday told me of a Misfit appearing several years ago, having a good laugh over it.
Such is fame.

Dallas once had the best basketball team in the world. I was told yesterday that every man is now in France.

Judge E. C. Kirkpatrick, now at the head of the county court, and a candidate for reelection, was once a resident of Albany, 30 or more years ago, then a printer. He has, among his holdings, a fine prune orchard.

By the way, Dallas is the prune center of Oregon, with some fine orchards near the city. Owners are in clover this year.

Fred West, formerly of Albany, has the only electric supply shop here.

Two former Albany men, Alba Burnett and Lee Bailey, are on a freight running from Black Rock, beyond Fall City, to Airline, doing 93 miles every day, being at Dallas three times a day, and working from about 4 a.
m. until 8 or 9 at night.

C. N. Bilyeu, proprietor of the Gail, a fine hotel, was born near Scio, son of Wm. Bilyeu.

Frank D. Barrett, of the Oregon Power Co., comes here frequently to see his best girl, a popular and accomplished Dallas young lady.

Mrs. W. L. Soehren, wife of the manager of the water works, was born in Brownsville, a daughter of G. M. Brown. Her mother was also born there.

Claud Miller, son of A. B. Miller, formerly of Albany, is manager of the Hazelwood Creamery Station, and also has a milk route of his own.

Dallas has one of the best moving picture showhouses in the state, outside of Portland.

It is a railroad center, with a train service almost equal to a streetcar system's.

ALBANY STATE BANKBack of the Firing Line

Modern war conditions demand that our armies must have behind them national solidarity, the coordination of all the vast activities and an industrial army many times greater than the Nation's fighting forces.

The Nation's capital is linked with all these varied activities by the toll and long distance lines of the Bell System. Thousands of miles of special wire systems have been turned over to the Government for its exclusive use. Switchboards in the Government departments at Washington have been enlarged and new ones installed. Right of way is given to Government business over all commercial lines, so that the Government chiefs may keep in constant touch with every phase of the Nation's great task and direct its progress intelligently and effectively.

In organizing the military activities of the country, the Government has had the effective cooperation of the Bell Telephone System, which even in peace times reached 70,000 communities and now extends to the headquarters of every Army Department and Naval District in the United States.
