MANY THOUSANDS WATCH

FILMING OF PHOTOPLAY

When "Love's Conquest" superb photoplay starring Lina Cavalieri, the famous singer, was staged at Fort Lee, thousands were constantly in attendance from nearby points. There are many mob scenes, and in one scene especially, that in which Gismonda is implored by the populace to keep her vow made under the shadow of the cross to wed the man who saved her child from death under the lion's claws, several thousand men and women, all appropriately costumed, are employed.

In handling these tremendous situations Edward Jose acquitted himself with great artistic skill. His groupings were magnificent. It's safe to say that "Love's Conquest" which is to be the main feature on the program at the Globe tonight, will be acclaimed as one of the greatest pictures.
