BESSIE BARRISCALE IN FIRST PARALTA PLAY, 'MADAM WHO'

The Rolfe Theater has secured for the attraction today and tomorrow, Miss Bessie Barriscale in her newest photoplay offering, "Madam Who." This is the first time Miss Barriscale has appeared in Albany since she became a star in Paralta Plays.

Harold MacGrath, author of many well known tales, wrote the story with which Miss Barriscale will inaugurate her new policy. The locale is in the South during the Civil War.

It is the story of a young girl who serves her cause by entering the secret service and going into the enemy lines to battle with the agents of the North. The story is timely. In attempting to capture them she herself is captured by the enemy, all of whom are masked.

They are loathe to kill her, when one suggests that she be forced to marry one of them. In the face of death she consents and is married by one of the masked men.

CARLTON ROSS WRITES

that $10 was all we could carry at one time. For instance a ten centime-piece, valued at less than two cents in American, is about the size of our half dollar. The franc, valued at 17 3/8 cents, is used as our dollar. All under that are centime pieces of different values.

On every corner is a wineship, with the tables set on the sidewalk. The places from daylight until dark are crowded with the Frenchmen, who sit for hours sipping his beloved wine, which tastes like bitter medicine to a foreigner. We stayed there ten days and then returned to La Verdun Roads where ten days more went by before a convoy was made up.

On August 3d, with 23 other merchant ships and a French escort, we started back to the United States, this time straight across instead of going north. After a while the convoy broke up and we came on alone, catching a glimpse of one of the ships on the horizon every few days. Radio in the war zone we found to be very busy and copied messages in five different languages. The three of us received a dozen S. O. S. calls from ships torpedoed, but none were very near our course. The return trip of 17 days was a good one and after two months of canned bill and beans nothing could look better to us than an American restaurant, not including the home table. Respectfully,

CARLTON ROSS.

On Sunday, August 25, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bayne near Peoria, a farewell dinner was given to their son, John, friends of whom wished him Godspeed. We all feel sure we will have reason to be proud of the record he will make. He is a grandson of the late Major Johnson, a Civil War veteran. Grandmother Johnson is still living, and was present at the dinner. There were also four boys from the O. A. C. training detachment: Lucius Graves, of Seattle; Philip Johnson of Bellingham, Wash., a cousin of the Baynes; John F. Shearer and Gerald J. Morrison, both from Yakima, Wash., and a grandson of Oregon and Washington pioneers: Mr. Minner, the grandfather of Morrison, who helped to capture and bring in old Chief Moses and his band after a brutal massacre at White Bluffs, Wash., in the 70's.

Others present were: G. T. Bayne and family, F. L. Bayne and family, L. B. Bays and son Lewis, J. A. Johnson and family, H. W. Millard and family, Geo. Workinger and family, S. R. Campbell and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. MacBride and daughter Edna, W. M. Githens and family, Mrs. F. A. Frisby, Mrs. M. M. Fruit, Mrs. Mary Wise, Mrs. Alice Barcus, Mr. and Mrs.

The War Industries Board Says: Print Paper Must Be Conserved

The Democrat has on its list a considerable number of subscribers who receive the paper at points outside of Linn County. Under the new regulations the postage rates for newspapers to points outside of the county are doubled. The Democrat therefore finds that it will be financially unable to carry on its list any subscriber from such outside points who is not paid cash in advance and the names of such subscribers will be eliminated from the subscription list during the present month. The management suggests that you send in your check at once if you wish the paper continued
