GATES NEWS

GATES, Oct. 8.—Special.—Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bevier motored to Gates Wednesday.

T. J. Winters is taking an engine to work in his mine near Quartzville. Mr. Winters has a very rich mine, it is reported.

The passenger train made its first trip to Detroit Thursday since the big fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Munro returned home from Oregon City Thursday.

Wm. Hayworth took a five-horse pack train load of supplies in for T. J. Winters at Quartzville Monday.

Lester Heseman, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Heseman, met with a serious accident Sunday morning. He was near a lumber pile at the Gates Lumber Co.'s railroad landing when the lumber fell over on him and, in extracting himself, he broke his leg near the hip. He was taken to the hospital at Mill City and medical aid procured. He was resting easy at last reports.

The much-needed and long-looked-for rain came at last and the ground is thoroughly soaked and fires extinguished.

Wm. Burnett, the man who accidentally shot himself near Quartzville Thursday, was brought to Gates Saturday and the remains shipped to his home at Independence.

"NO SHADOW ON HER FACE"

Writer Tells of English Woman Who Has Given All She Had to the Country.

We English do not read our casualty lists any more. Many of us dare not. When we meet, we do not even speak of those who have gone away. A very touching thing was told me by one of my neighbors. He was the last of twenty-four officers in one of the Gordon regiments. He said that the places were just filled up as soon as they were emptied, and they never spoke of those who had fallen. That brings the reality of the thing to you. In my own little country—Scotland—you will find many, many villages from which the Highland regiments have been recruited. There are no boys left to come back. They are all dead.

Not many weeks before I came to this country I was up in the Gordon country, and on a Sunday night I was speaking in a church on the spiritual side of the war. At the close a woman came to me, a little, simple, country woman, dressed in the uniform of the Gordon Highlanders, holding a yellow ribbon, which I, alas, knew too well. "The war office department regrets to inform—that—was killed in action." She laid this little ribbon beside one of the portraits, and said, "That came yesterday. That's Jimmie. He's the last of the three." "I hear you are going to America. Will you tell American mothers I have given all my boys? I had only three and I would give six, if I had them, for the same cause." Another friend of mine has given all her five sons. She is a widow and she has none left; but she is working in one of the canneries with no shadow on her face.—Mrs. A. Burnett-Smith in the Atlantic Monthly.

FLIER IS MADE CHEVALIER

Gwynemer's Friend and Pupil Has Seven Victories to His Credit.

Paris.—Sous-Lieutenant Bonon-Vendraz, recently made a chevalier of the Legion of Honor, following his seventh officially recorded aerial victory, was the intimate friend and pupil of Gwynemer.

He accompanied Gwynemer September 11, 1917, when the latter met his fate. His one thought since, it is asserted, has been to avenge the great aviator. One of the new chevalier's feats was to shoot down three planes in four hours. He was a cavalryman until transferred to the air service.

THE UNBELIEVER

You may think that your patriotism has reached the highest point, that nothing can move you to a deeper feeling, and that you thoroughly appreciate the importance of the military service. But go to see Geo. Kleine's "The Unbeliever," at the Rolfe Friday to Sunday inclusive, and you'll learn a great deal about the service that figures in newspapers and in war but is never much in the public eye, the Marine Corps.

"The Unbeliever" was produced by Thomas A. Edison in cooperation with the Marines.

It has to do, among other things, with a love story of Philip Landcutt, late a Long Island exclusive colonist, now a private marine, and Virginia Harbroke, Belgian girl of gentle birth, caught in the horrible vortex of war and a victim of terrible atrocities.

The story is full of action and holds the interest absorbingly.

THE TIGERMAN AT THE

GLOBE SHOWHOUSE TONIGHT

The Globe has a most interesting program on for today and tomorrow. William S. Hart, famous portrayal of Western roles, in an absorbing narrative of the desert in the days of the gold rush, called "The Tiger Man."

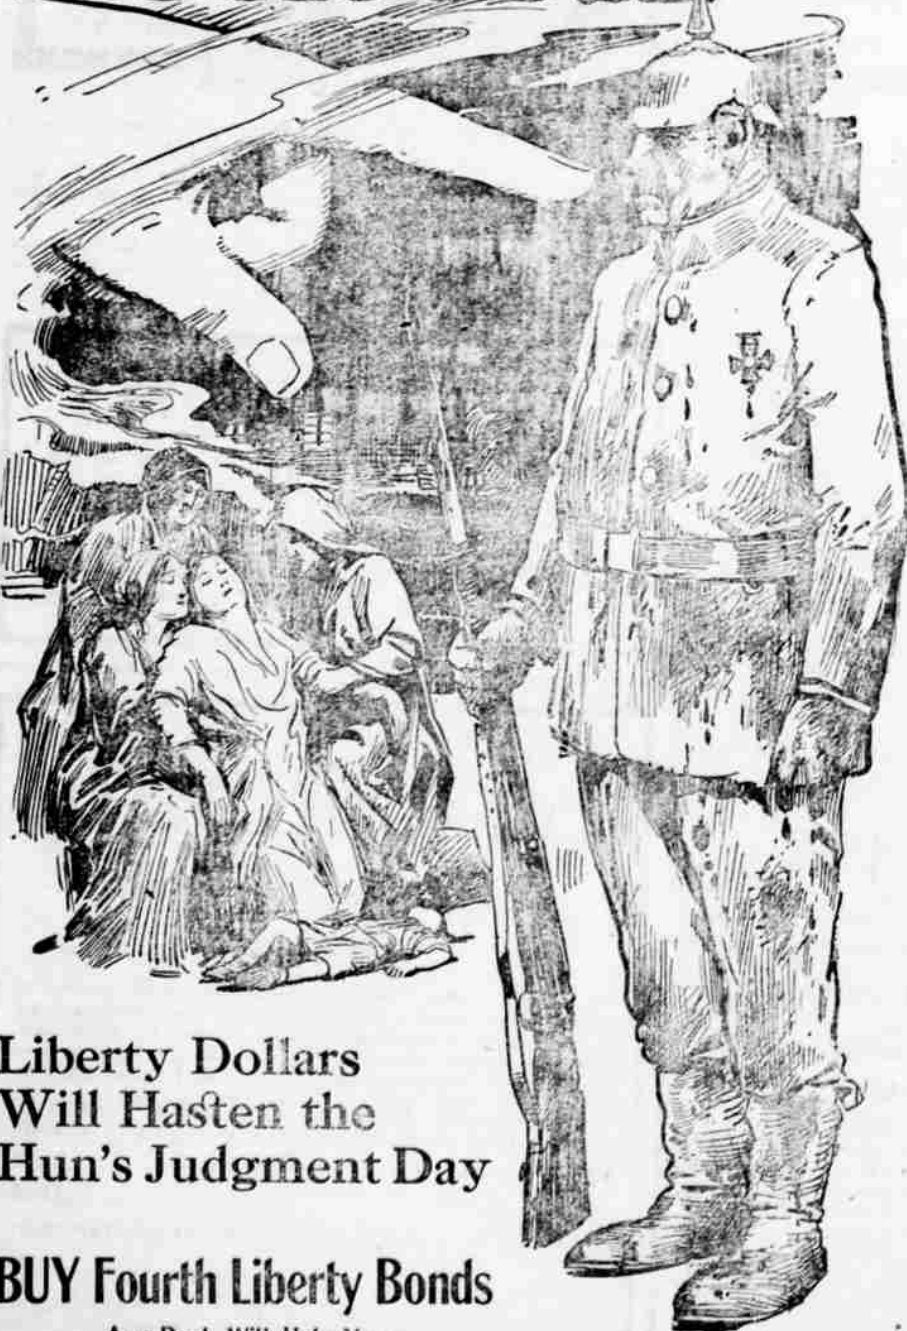

Antoinette Bonit, he is regenerated thru the religious fervor of a beautiful woman, the wife of a minister of the gospel.

The incidents are dramatic and thrilling, and exert a powerful heart appeal. In addition, the Official War Review will be shown and a Christie Comedy. The Review is attracting much favorable comment, because it actually depicts the scene of battle at the front today, and many a mother may see her own son upholding the honor of Old Glory over there.

GOOD READING FOR TOMMIE

LONDON, Oct. 8.—People have been using the postoffice free postage privilege of sending magazines to the troops as a means of unloading a wild assortment of journalistic and literary junk on the Tommies. These are some of the magazines and articles sent out for men in the trenches to read: "How to Improve Your Complexion," "Dressmaking at Home," "Needlework for Our Girls," "Nasturtium Planting" and "Tinky Tales for Tiny Tots."

WITH THE AMERICANS, Oct. 8.—The Germans continue the evacuation of Champagne territory opposite the Americans northwest of Rheims. The lines are temporarily stationary, however, as the enemy is stiffly holding his front line positions while removing his supplies from the lowlands to his rear.
