Autumn Welworths Are Here and the Price Is Unchanged

—Here's an announcement of which we are justly proud for it evidences many things about which a real service-giving store has a right to feel proud.

—First, it stresses the point that we will keep prices as low as we can as long as we can.

—Secondly, it proves the benefit to the consumer of our intimate co-operation with worthy manufacturers.

—Thirdly, it exemplifies a STYLE SERVICE, which brings us the new styles FIRST, the same styles on the same day as they first appear in the recognized style centers of the Country.

These Welworths are still priced at $2.00. They now and for many months past have represented values that would warrant a much higher price. Before the end of the present year, the price must inevitably be increased to $2.50.

We are sole distributors for this city of the Welworth and Wirthmor—the thrift Blouses of an entire Nation

WORKINGER-FREERKSEN WEDDING PERFORMED MONDAY

A pretty wedding was solemnized Monday, Oct. 7, at high noon, when Manna Ida Freerksen became the bride of Frank L. Workinger, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Freerksen of near Halsey.

Percy Taylor and Miss Frances Freerksen, sister of the bride, were the attendants. Rev. G. G. Wilson of Oakville officiated, and the beautiful ring ceremony was used. Only the family's near relatives and a few intimate friends were present.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Freerksen and one of the most popular young ladies of the community. Mr. Workinger is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Workinger of near Shedd.

Mr. and Mrs. Workinger were the recipients of many useful and valuable presents. They left on the afternoon train on a wedding trip, going to Seattle and thru Eastern Washington. They will be at home in Portland after October 25, where Mr. Workinger is employed as riveting instructor by the Northwest Shipbuilding corporation.

NOTICE OF SALE OF GOVERNMENT TIMBER

GENERAL LAND OFFICE, Washington, D. C., August 29, 1918.—Notice is hereby given that subject to the conditions and limitations of the Act of June 9, 1916 (39 Stat., 218) and the instructions of the Secretary of the Interior of September 15, 1917, the timber on the following lands will be sold October 23, 1918, at 10 o'clock a. m., at public auction at the United States land office at Portland, Oregon, to the highest bidder at not less than the appraised value as shown by this notice, sale to be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior. The purchase price, with an additional sum of one-fifth of one per cent thereof, being commissions allowed, must be deposited at time of sale, money to be returned if sale is not approved, otherwise patent will issue for the timber which must be removed within ten years. Bids will be received from citizens of the United States, associations of such citizens and corporations organized under the laws of the United States or any State, territory or district thereof only. Upon application of a qualified purchaser, the timber on any legal subdivision will be offered separately before being included in any offer of a larger unit.

Helmets Mark Our Soldiers' Graves

WITH THE AMERICANS, France, Oct. 10.—By their helmets you shall know their graves.

It's the case over the battlefield that stretches north from the Marne over rolling hills covered with grain fields and woods.

As the German forces retired they left many dead. Americans following buried them where they fell at the first opportunity. Usually the graves are marked with nothing but a German helmet on the fresh mound.

Sometimes a stick is erected, or a cross, depending on the intensity of artilleryfire in the region, and the time at the disposal of the "mopperes-up." Sometimes the German helmet is on top of the cross. Once on the grave, the helmets are untouched.

The American dead were buried in groups farther back when possible. Sometimes this couldn't be done. Then a silent group of doughboys buried their fallen by the roadside.

These, too, are recognized by the helmets on the fresh earth mounds, with crosses at the head, and usually a bottle stuck in the earth into which the data regarding the fallen fighter was hastily scribbled and placed by his comrades. Some day it can be gathered and information forwarded to his folks.

"THE UNBELIEVER"

The Rolfe Theater captured the big prize of the season when they secured the big Edison contribution, "The Unbeliever," which is presented by the George Kleine System. This story, adapted from Mary Raymond Shipman Andrews' novelette, "The Three Things," was directed by Alan Crosland and stars Raymond McKee and Marguerite Courtot; the one as a brave and chivalrous U. S. marine, the other as a young Belgian girl enmeshed in the horror and tragedy of the great war. A touch of realism and unquestioned military authenticity is given by the setting of the marine cantonment at Quantico, Va., and by the participation of a regiment of marines, commanded by their own officers.

The plot contains every element of interest, the appeal to national pride, the development of a man's soul, a friendship that regards self-sacrifice as a privilege, and a great and chivalrous love story. "The Unbeliever" will be shown at the Rolfe for three days starting Friday.

SPANISH INFLUENZA IN EUGENE IN LIGHT FORM

EUGENE, Oct. 10.—Five or six cases of Spanish influenza have appeared in Eugene during the past two days, according to Dr. Seth M. Kerron, county health officer; but none of the cases are so severe that the patients are in immediate danger. They have been promptly isolated and every precaution taken, both in the city and at the University of Oregon, to prevent as far as possible the spread of the contagion.

Dr. Kerron has asked that all cases thought to be Spanish influenza be reported to the city or county health officer.

Brazilian Boys to Train With Yankees

RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 10.—Brazil is planning to send a contingent of 50 or more boys to Camp Daniels, West Palm Beach, Fla., to be trained with American boys of the junior naval reserve.

Brazil is investigating the system of training given young boys in the junior naval reserve of the United States, with the intention of establishing a similar training system for boys. The boys who are trained at Camp Daniels for Brazil will go back to their own country to become petty officers on Brazilian ships. Incidentally, they will help to cement the rapidly growing friendship between the United States and Brazil.
