THE GREAT BARGAIN

The Fourth Liberty Loan will be raised, of course. An innate sense of justice and a racial hatred of the quiter who doesn't do his share of the work will put it over.

We are urged everywhere to buy bonds to back up the boys, and that alone is sufficient reason for buying.
The plain advantage to the buyer, be the war long or short, should act as a further spur if one is necessary.

Not the high rate of interest, but the security of an investment, is the test of its worth. That security depends upon the intrinsic value of the property back of it, and the honesty of the people handling it.

The value of the property back of the Fourth Liberty Loan is inestimable for it is the soil of the United States and everything in and upon it.

Standing on this soil is uncut timber worth $48,000,000,000. There was raised upon it last year, more than $3-000,000,000 worth of corn, and $1,000-000,000 worth of wheat, while the oats alone sold for more than enough to pay the annual interest on all the bonds at the end of this drive. There comes from our coal mines upward of $800,000,000 a year. Our iron supply is almost as great as our coal. We produce 65 per cent of the copper the world. Our steel manufactures for last year alone totaled more than $1,000,000,000. And yet the half has not been told of the resources guaranteeing the value to the investor in Liberty Bonds.

As to the honesty of the handlers, the United States has been in business for 142 years, and has never failed to pay interest when it was due, or to meet its notes at their full value.
It is to be remembered, too, that the United States government is not one man, or one small set of men, but it is the people themselves, and of these the vast majority are honest.

The U. S. Liberty Bond surely must present itself to any shrewd buyer as an investment well worth while, to be viewed with pride and a sense of security. Its foundations are the foundations of old Earth itself, and the citizen holder of the Liberty Bond is personally responsible for the honest administration of the loan. A man can go to sleep or die happy in the knowledge that here at least is one investment in which there is no lurking danger that his wife has been robbed or his children cheated.

JUST AMERICAN

Just today we chanced to meet—Down upon the crowded street;
And I wondered whence he came,
What was once his nation's name.
So I asked him, "Tell me true, Are you Pole or Russian Jew, English, Scotch, Italian, Russian, Belgian, Spanish, Swiss, Moravian, Dutch or Greek or Scandinavian?"
Then he raised his head on high,
As he gave me this reply:
"What I was is naught to me, In this land of Liberty.
In my soul, as man to man, I am just American."

FATAL PROPAGANDA

So great is Germany's fear of allied propaganda that she threatened recently to put to death all allied aviators caught distributing pamphlets on German soil.

Thus far Germany's treatment of allied airmen has been the one bright spot on her escutcheon. It is entirely in keeping for her to sully it. It would be a pity to be recommended for one decent thing when you are trying for a 100 per cent record in brutality.

But she must not forget that if killing propagandists becomes the fashion, quite a few Germans and Austrians may perish from the earth.

RHODE ISLAND RED FLYER

FALLS FROM SKY SAFELY

LONDON, Oct. 16.—Private Ben Andrews of the U. S. signal corps, is an aerial observer.

A few months ago Andrews' chief was assigned to do some patrolling.

"We were flying low, and the first thing we knew Fritz shot one of our wings away and we tumbled down into No Man's Land," says Andy. "During the rumpus I got a bullet in my backket."

"I managed to get out of the machine, but didn't dare do anything.
About six hours later the British came out and got me," said Andrews, rum-pling his red hair nonchalantly.

He hails from Providence, R. I. and is convalescing here.

TURN HAIR DARK
WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mummy mixing at home.
All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.
This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
