KAISER PLAYS IT, TOO

LONDON, Oct. 21.—In a town-bound train a stalwart killed sergeant had in custody a thin, lanky German prisoner of war.

The prisoner was a boy of some 16 or 17 years, and he seemed highly pleased with England. When not surveying the scenery he cheered himself by playing on a mouthorgan. After trying one or two tunes he suddenly broke into "Love Me and the World Is Mine."

"Stow that, young'un," growled the sergeant. "We don't love yer, and the world ain't yours. See?"

MISFITS

By F. P. N.

Lebanon has the distinction of having one of the best hotels in the Valley, the Hotel Lebanon, Albert F. Wilson, "mine host." It is noted near and far for its good service.

Biggest of its institutions is the paper mill, with a large payroll.

Lebanon is the home of Milton A. Miller, collector of internal revenue, one of Oregon's most prominent and patriotic citizens.

Also, of Samuel M. Gorland, state senator, whom I am informed will succeed himself.

After being in the newspaper business for many years, Postmaster Kirkpatrick finds being a Nasby an easy job. He only works now from 6:30 a. m. to 8:30 p. m.

The barbers also are some workers here, keeping their shops open until 8 p. m.

Speaking of barbers, H. A. Lovell, who has been in Hood River for some time, is here again. Mrs. Lovell was formerly Miss Jessae Cox, of Albany.

Adrian Comely, whom I had not seen for many years, was in town, coming down from near Sweethome, where he is working in a sawmill. His father had the reputation of being the premier joker of early days in Albany.

W. R. Chance, formerly of Albany, now an Aumsville miller, drove into town on a flour-selling trip, getting many orders along the way.

An Albany college graduate is teaching here. I had to promise not to put her name in the paper.

But there is no teaching just now. The flu scare has stopped things of a public-gathering character, though I haven't even heard a sneeze.

A. J. Baker, commercial tourist with headquarters at Eugene, was here. He used to run out of Albany for many years.

Rode out here with Billy Hoefflin, 27 years an R. R. man, and he doesn't look over 35; but he is.

Boy Hammers Cap; Fingers Blown Off

The nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Newman of Chitwood lost two fingers and the tips of the other three when a cap which he was pounding with a hammer exploded late Saturday afternoon.

The boy was brought to the office of Dr. Davis where his wounds were dressed.

THREE HOURS RED CROSS WORK PER WEEK FOR WOMEN

E. OF O, Eugene, Oct. 21.—Three hours of Red Cross work is compulsory for the underclasswomen and voluntary for upperclasswomen at the University of Oregon.

As yet Red Cross has no place in which to meet. Last year the work was carried on in the Y. W. C. A. bungalow, which is now occupied by the department of physical education for women. If possible, a house near the campus will be turned into Red Cross rooms, but if that is impossible, Red Cross work on the campus will not begin for some six weeks, at which time the military quarters will be ready.

The work in all probability will be under a committee from the Y. W. C. A. and Women's League, with supervisors from the Eugene chapter.

THE Best Advertisement in the World

IT IS THE TICK of the Clock. It says only one short word, but it says that word over and over.

Here the tick is loud there low.

But always millions on millions of clocks are saying it.

It never stops.

It speaks to a baby's ears, and to the dying hours of an old man.

It speaks in time of joy; in time of grief; in time of idleness, or struggle and stress; in time of peace, or time of WAR.

It never stops.

Always it is telling the old, old story of the clock, "Time Flies."

Always it is repeating the stern lesson of life—"The World Forgets."

It never stops.

And it has made the clock the best known thing in all the world.

Such is the power of reiteration.

Such is the power of persistence.

Such is the power of constancy.

Call the advertising roll of honor, the world-famous advertising, alive to answer.

None ever stopped. All have told their story over and over, and still are telling it.

Advertising stopped is advertising dead.

Advertising brought back from the grave must foot again the long, old road from the very beginning.

NOW is the time to advertise—the only time.

Advertise tomorrow when tomorrow is NOW

Listen to THE TICK of the clock, as it tells you: "Time flies. The world forgets."

NOW is the time to advertise.
