MISFITS

—By F. P. N.—

No matter how cool the weather, one can easily become hot by reading anything that comes from Berlin.

There is no longer any question about the abiding place of the prince of lars.

A two- or three-days' residence in this fine home place up the Calapooia has been greatly enjoyed, not the least being my stay with the Nortons at their hotel.

The trouble with Brownsville is not that it is divided by a river, but that the people have always remained divided, and to this day have two high schools instead of one; and do not pull together the way the people of a city should do. It is to be regretted, for there are some of the best people in Oregon here.

Speaking of good people, two of them are running for county offices—W. J. Moore for sheriff and Miss Powell for treasurer.

Henry Blakely, after being in Alaska a couple years, is here for a visit. Mrs. Blakely and Mrs. Judge Blackburn, formerly of Albany, are sisters and next-door neighbors. The Blakely boys have become prominent. William is one of Unadilla's wealthy citizens; Joe has been deputy sheriff at Pendleton for 19 years; George is a prosperous druggist at The Dalles, and Jim has large holdings at Enterprise.

Another big family of men who have spread out in a prominent way are the Templetons.

The Stanards have the leading store here. The father of C. E. Stanard was one of Albany's early mayors.

Linn has no better citizen than Hon. W. P. Elmore, president of the bank, always standing for the best.

It was here that Hon. J. K. Weatherford made his start for a very active and successful career as a lawyer.

L. E. Blain was a boy and young man here, and very few Brownsville men go to Albany without calling on him.

Howe Bros. have a well-patronized store here. George prepared for the work by teaching school for 21 years, mostly around Albany.

Hon. J. P. Galbraith, immigration agent at Blaine, Wash., began his Linn county residence here, coming from Tennessee.

Brownsville, Oct. 22.

THE Best Advertisement in the World

IT IS THE TICK of the Clock. It says only one short word, but it says that word over and over.

Here the tick is loud there low.

But always millions on millions of clocks are saying it.

It never stops.

It speaks to a baby's ears, and to the dying hours of an old man.

It speaks in time of joy; in time of grief; in time of idleness, or struggle and stress; in time of peace, or time of WAR.

It never stops.

Always it is telling the old, old story of the clock, "Time Flies."

Always it is repeating the stern lesson of life—"The World Forgets."

It never stops.

And it has made the clock the best known thing in all the world.

Such is the power of reiteration.

Such is the power of persistence.

Such is the power of constancy.

Call the advertising roll of honor, the world-famous advertising, alive to answer.

None ever stopped. All have told their story over and over, and still are telling it.

Advertising stopped is advertising dead.

Advertising brought back from the grave must foot again the long, old road from the very beginning.

NOW is the time to advertise—the only time.

Advertise tomorrow when tomorrow is NOW

Listen to THE TICK of the clock, as it tells you: "Time flies. The world forgets."

NOW is the time to advertise.

ROBERT E. RINEHART.

The 100 Per Cent Look

MEN ARE JUDGED TO NO SMALL DEGREE BY THEIR PERSONAL APPEARANCE. LOOKS REFLECT THE MENTAL ATTITUDE AND ENABLE ONE TO JUDGE ON SIGHT THE MANNER OF MEN WE ARE.

APPEARANCES ARE OF COURSE DECEIVING AT TIMES, BUT AS A GENERAL THING A MAN GETS MORE CONSIDERATION IN ANY WALK OF LIFE IF HE TAKES PARTICULAR CARE OF HIS PERSONAL APPEARANCE.

CLOTHCRAFT CLOTHES ARE DESIGNED FOR EVERY TYPE OF MAN AND ARE SO PRICED THAT NEARLY EVERYONE CAN BE WELL-DRESSED AT A PRICE HE FEELS HE CAN AFFORD TO PAY.

Important Points for You to Remember

ABOUT CHILDREN'S SHOES

COMFORT—Children's feet are growing feet. They grow both ways. It's not only necessary to get shoes long enough but they should be built on lasts that allow plenty of room for the little feet to expand in a natural way.

SERVICE—Because of the rough usage to which children's shoes are exposed, they must necessarily be made well, of thoroughly reliable leathers.

STYLE—The element of "style" is important because no matter how good the quality or how comfortable the last, you wouldn't want your child to wear shoes that were not good-looking.

Our Children's Shoes embody all these important points and in addition, they are very reasonably priced, as the following will attest.

- Sizes 1 to 5 $1.50 to $3.00
- Sizes 5 to 8 $2.00 to $3.50
- Sizes 8 1/2 to 11 . . $2.50 to $4.00
- Sizes 11 1/2 to 2 . . $3.00 to $5.00
