A COMPARISON

If we are to believe the reactionary republican leaders and a partisal press the code of political othics has undergone a most decided change since the year 1838. The printed words of three presidents of the United States are quoted below and offer per haps the most complete answer t the critics of President Wilson

Colonel Roosevelt in 1898:

Colonel Reosevelt in 1898:

"Remember that whether you will or not, your votes this year will be viewed by the nations of Europe from one standpoint only. They will draw no fine distinctions. A refusal to sustain the President this year will, in their eyes, be read as a refusal to sustain the war and to sustain the efforts of our peace commission to secure the fruits of war. Such a refusal may not inconceivably bring about a rupture of peace negotiations. It will give heart to our defeated antagonists; it will make possible the interference of those doubtful neutral nations, who in this struggle have wished us ill."

Benjamin Harrison in 1898:

Benjamin Harrison in 1898: Benjamin Harrison in 1898:
"If the word goes forth that the people of the United States are standing solidly behind the President, the task of the peace commissioners will be easy, but if there is a break in the ranks—if the democratic scena to thing victory, if democratic scenators, congressmen and governors are elected—Spain will see in it a gleam of hope; she will take fresh hope, and a renewal of hostilities, more war, may be necessary to secure to us what we be necessary to secure to us what w

Woodrow Wilson in 1918:

"If in these critical days it is your wish to sustain me with undivided minds. I beg that you will say so in a way which it will not be possible to misunderstand either here at home or among our associates on the other side of the sea.

"If you have approved of my leader."

of the sea.

"If you have approved of my leadership and wish me to continue to be your unembarrassed spokesman in affairs at home and abroad. I earnestly beg that you will express yourself unmistakably to that effect by returning a democratic majority to both the senate and house of representatives."

FOR SUPREME JUDGE

A. S. Bennett of The Dalles is the logical candidate for justice of the supreme court. His wide experience both as a practicing attorney and or the bench could be put to an excellent purpose as a member of the highest legal tribunal of the state, and his election would be a fitting tribute to a man who has attained p-rhaps more prominence in his profession than any other lawyer in Oregon. His name will not be printed on the ballot but should be written in by his friends and admirers in various parts of the Guard Your Breath.

"A man's breath," says Popular Science Monthly, "is often a betrayer of secrets. He may have been out late, sitting up with a sick friend, but when he reaches home bis loving wife at once opens up her battery of re-

"Now comes the news that two inventors in Osceola, Ark., have jointly invented a breath-guard of a new pattern. It is said to be efficient, but not in the manner you were thinking of. It is intended to protect dentists, barbers and physicians from inhal-ing the germ-inden breath of their patients or patrons. It consists of a small curved shield of glass placed so as to cover the postrils and held in position by a spring clip gripping the partition wall of the nose on the in-side. Many diseases are directly communicated through the inhaintion of tainted air, and a device of this kind should be a boon to professional people who are compelled, by the nature of their duties, to be in close proxim ity to those whom they serve.

Suttee.

The English government, after long discouraging suttees, by the agency of Lord William Bentinck formally abellord Willian Bentinck formully abol-ished them in December, 1829, but they have since occusionally taken place. The wife of the son of the Rajah of Beygoon thus perished in June, 1884, and several wives of Sir Tung Bahadoor, minister of Nepaul, on March 1, 1877. One voluntary suf-tee occurred at Poona, in November 1890, and it has continued to the pre-ent time in isolated parts of Ind's. ent time in isolated parts of Ind'a, for even as late as 1965 several per-sons who took part in a suttee in Be-har were condemned to penal serviFor
