

HUNS BOWS TO WILL OF ALLIES

KAISER IN HOLLAND

All Draft Calls Cancelled by U. S. Government

 * TERMS the HUNS WERE FORCED TO ACCEPT *
 * WASHINGTON, November 11.—U. P.—The armistice terms include the evacuation of invaded territory including Alsace-Lorraine and Luxemburg, the surrender of a vast amount of guns and equipment, the evacuation of the left bank of the Rhine, unconditional surrender of all German forces in East Africa, reparation for damage done, surrender of many submarines and battleships, concentration of aircraft at stipulated points, reparation of all allied and American merchant vessels. The duration of the armistice is 30 days.
 * The abandonment of the Bucharest and Brest treaties and the evacuation of all Black Sea ports are also required.

By CARL D. GROATT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The President this afternoon told congress and the world the terms Germany accepted with the armistice. These terms pictured Germany as surrendering abjectly to Foch in the field, her armies beaten, her government overturned, her master in flight.

A small crowd and small congress heard the President but his words were burning and enthusiasm ran riot. The evacuation of Alsace-Lorraine, Luxemburg and all occupied territory must be completed within 14 days. Occupation by the allies and the U.S. forces jointly will keep pace with the evacuation. All inhabitants of the evacuated territory must be repatriated within 14 days. The German army must surrender in good condition 5,000 guns, field pieces; 30,000 machineguns, 3,000 minnenwerfers, 2,000 airplanes. The evacuated territory on the Rhine's left bank will be administered by the local authorities under allied-American control. The allies will hold the principal crossings of the Rhone and Mayence, Coblenz, and Cologne, with the bridgeheads at these points. A wide strip along the Rhine's right bank becomes a neutral zone.

Eleven additional days are allowed for the evacuation of the Rhinelands. The evacuating armies shall not harm or deport the evacuated territories' inhabitants. All food

Yanks Fox Trot As News Comes

By LLOYD MELLETT

WITH THE AMERICANS, France Nov. 11.—Motor-cycle carriers tore along the roads shouting, "It's all over, boys." Marching columns, tired, mud-spattered, were galvanized into new life. They laughed, shouted and sang.

I saw several doughboys under full packs, fox-trotting from column to column. The words "It's over" turned the grim men into laughing boys.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Premier Lloyd-George announced the cessation of hostilities was effective at 11 this morning on all European fronts.

It was officially announced that the armistice with Germany was signed at 5 this morning.
