BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

PERUNA

Made Me a Well Woman

No sufferer from catarrh of the stomach can read Mrs. Van Buren's letter without a feeling of thankfulness.

"I have spent a great deal of money with doctors for catarrh of the stomach and at times have been compelled to give up my household for days. For years I did not know what a well day was and cannot help but feel that I would not be alive today had I not been induced to try Peruna. Six bottles of Peruna made me a well woman."

land, Miss Flora Mason presided at a most perfectly-appointed luncheon today at 1 o'clock. The dainty Thanksgiving color scheme of yellow and white predominated in the decorations of Fall flowers. Mrs. Nevins is the week-end guest of Miss Mason and Mrs. Greer motored over from Corvallis with several ladies from there, where she has been visiting.

Mrs. Owen Beam extended the hospitality of her home this week on Tuesday evening, when the members of the P. E. O. Sisterhood entertained their husbands there. The rooms where a most enjoyable evening was passed socially, were attractively adorned with chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. Later lunch was served cafeteria style. The guests for the evening numbered 22.

Occupying the attention of the younger social set this week, and prominent among the high school events, was the Sophomore reception, an annual event given by the high school members for the pleasure of the sophomores and new teachers. In gala attire of the season, the rooms of senior high were the scene of this affair. An abundance of fir boughs, fernery and autumn leaves were profusely used in decorative effect. Indian blankets and cushions were arranged in cozy corners. During the early part of the evening a delightful program was given, followed by enjoyable diversions and stunts. At a late hour light refreshments were served to bring the evening to a close.

Bringing the week's social activities to a climax, the dance to be given tonight in the armory by the Honor Guard girls will probably be a most successful affair. The armory has been decorated in flags and fir boughs suggestive of the season. Mrs. B. R. Wallace, Mrs. Van Smith, Mrs. Fred Fortmiller, and Mrs. Winnifred Walker will be patronesses. Music will be furnished by the jazz orchestra of Corvallis.

The guests of the Hotel Albany enjoyed an informal little dancing party Thursday evening in the reception room. Music and dancing were the gay diversions to pass the evening's hours.

The students of Albany college will gather at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hopkins this evening, to spend an evening in informal gaiety. Decorations about the rooms are characterized by a keynote of the Fall season. The evening will be pleasantly passed in a social way.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cooper have been entertaining at their guests this week, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cooper of Independence, and Mrs. McNeal of Seattle.

Mrs. Ralph McKechnie royally entertained the members of the Needlecraft club this week on Thursday afternoon. The rooms where the guests gathered were effectively adorned with a profusion of chrysanthemums, carrying out the color scheme of pink and white. Preparations were arranged at this time for planning the Christmas tree, an annual event of the club. At the close of the afternoon a dainty lunch was served by the hostess. Several additional guests were present to pass the afternoon.

The Neos Nymph club members enjoyed a social evening this week on Thursday evening. After going to see Mary Pickford in "M'Liss," the crowd enjoyed refreshments in the banquet room of the Elite.

A good crowd enjoyed the dance of Wednesday night given by the Home Guard at the armory. Out-of-town guests came to spend the evening in the jolly diversion.
