TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

If Mixed with Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea, streaked and faded hair is grand-mother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage. Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mummy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft luster and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

SOCIETY

BEATRICE SANDERS Society Editor Bell 481-J.

Mrs. A. I. Ramsay extended the hospitality of her country home to the members of the Needlecraft club this week on Thursday afternoon. Cat flowers in various shades adorned the rooms where a bevy of additional guests and club members enjoyed a social chat and fancy work.

Many people took part in the lantern given this week at the First Presbyterian church on Friday. Attractive booths of fancy work, candies, aprons, dolls and domestic science booths were filled to overflowing with things to sell. Later a cafeteria supper was served. In every way the affair was most successful.

One of the most attractively appointed affairs in this week's social activities was the supper given by the Ladies of the Minnanta Chapter No. 25, Neighbors of Woodcraft. This event was given in compliment to their husbands, on Monday evening. Refreshments and greenery, combined with chrysanthemums, added their loveliness to the table. A most pleasant dance was passed and many clever toasts given. Later the ladies repaired to the lodge room, where they nominated and elected officers, resulting as follows: Guardian Neighbor, Mrs. Alice Kirk; past guardian neighbor, Mrs. Alice Schell; advisor, Charley Deason; clerk, Edna Warner; managers, Lida Van Winkle, Florentine Voss and Leilah Campbell; musician, Anna Seaman; attendant, Candie McCleskey; inner sentinel, Martha Benson; outer sentinel, Minnie Schell; captain of guards, Anna Shelvik; musician, Lola Junkin.

Mrs. Adeline A. McCaughey was most delightfully surprised on her 50th birthday, this week, when on Monday while she was attending church, a crowd of friends thronged her home. Upon her return Mrs. McCaughey found the guests seated at a beautifully-laden table, where she was given the toast of honor. She received many beautiful gifts in remembrance of her birthday.

In compliment to Mrs. H. S. Logan, who will soon leave on a trip to Texas, the members of the P. E. O. were entertained Monday evening at the home of Mrs. W. G. Ballack. A most pleasant evening was passed socially preceded by a short business session. Blossoms of the season added their touch to the rooms where the guests gathered.

On Thursday afternoon of this week Mrs. O. D. Byers presided as hostess to the Priscilla club. Very prettily arranged about the rooms, chrysanthemums were used in decoration. Bringing a most delightful social time to a close, a delicious lunch was served. Besides the members, those complimented were Mr. C. W. Boettcher, Mrs. Hayes and Mrs. W. Bacon.

The Kensington club was entertained this week on Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Oscar Powell. An abundance of vari-colored chrysanthemums added a decorative effect to the rooms where fancywork and conversation were the pastimes enjoyed during the afternoon. (Continued on Page 4)
