A fellow never realizes how much he will use a big warm bathrobe until he has one. When you want to sit up a trifle late and the room begins to get chilly there's nothing that will take the place of one of these comfortable robes. Made of terrycloth in pink, blue, brown and gray, they sell at $5.00 to $10.00

HAMILTON

Albany yesterday to spend Christmas with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Miller. They arrived in New York last Sunday after making their tenth trip from New York to France on the Northern Pacific, that formerly ran between Portland and San Francisco. A number of Linn county boys have crossed on this transport. The boys are captains of the gun crew and have a rating of second class boatwain's mate. On arriving at New York the boys received a 30-day furlough and will remain in Albany until December 26, when they will return to New York. They do not know whether they will be released from the service or not but ten per cent are being discharged, and this includes those having dependents and those making application to be discharged to attend school.
