CITY NEWS

Here Shopping—
Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gordon of Fayetteville were shopping in Albany yesterday.

Went to Salem—
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Thompson went to Salem this morning on business.

Shedd News Notes

SHEDD, Dec. 13.—Special.—A 4½ boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Krigger this morning. Both lady and mother are getting along well.

The following were Albany visitors yesterday: Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Thompson and son Orval and Mrs. Martin Thompson; H. J. Farwell, Chas. Arnold, C. C. Arnold and Miss Mina Arnold.

A Ford and an Oakland ran together on a turn in the Pacific Highway about one and a quarter miles from Shedd last Tuesday afternoon. Both cars were quite badly damaged. The names of the owners of the cars have not been reported as yet. No one was hurt.

"Uncle John" Davis shipped another carload of hogs Tuesday. He says that hogs are getting to be a scarce article around this vicinity.

Cyrus Arnold took the 11:30 train for Marion last Sunday noon, to visit his sister, Agnes, who has been quite ill with scarlet fever. Miss Arnold has been teaching school at North Santiam, about three miles east of Marion.

About 50 cases of Spanish influenza are reported in this vicinity today.

Henry Halverson is quite ill, but the doctor does not think it is "flu." Lon Davis of Elsie is nursing him.

Geo. Danner attended the funeral of Ralph Savage at Halsey last Sunday. Mr. Savage died at Presidio, Cal., while in the U. S. training camp, of spinal trouble caused from an attack of the flu which he had some time ago.

H. L. Stenberg and family expect to move to Albany Friday. Mr. Stenberg has had charge of the Hazelwood cream station here for the past five months, but has been transferred to the Albany station on Second street, leaving W. J. Dunlap in charge of this station here. Mr. Dunlap will take the examination at Corvallis today.

The Christian Endeavor rally which was to have been Dec. 13th has been postponed until after the Christmas holidays because of the influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Brock returned home from a week's visit with relatives at Fall Creek, Oregon, last Tuesday.

The Highway from Shedd to Albany is in pretty fair shape after the heavy rains.

C. J. Shedd made a business trip to Corvallis last Tuesday.

The schoolhouse is being wired for electric lights, which will be a great convenience to the public at night.
