POLES FIGHT FOR FREEDOM

Legion of Soldiers of That Nationality Are Co-operating With the Allies in France.

Napoleon once said of the Polish army, "It is the best." Almost since the beginning of the war it has been the ambition of the Poles again to distinguish themselves in the field, regain their ancient prestige and win from the world the admission that their services entitle their nation to autonomy and independence.

Russia for political reasons discouraged the idea of a distinctive Polish army both under the rule of the czar and under Kerensky. Of course under the bolsheviki the agitation ended. So the Poles turned to France, which bade them welcome and in an order dated June 4, 1917, decreed the creation of a distinct Polish legion.

Now the legion, which has grown so fast that it is really an army, is about to take its place on the battle line, having been mobilized in a great camp named Sillole-Guillaume, near Le Mans. The uniform is the same as the French, with the exception of a distinctive headdress, the "czapka." The officers are Frenchmen and Poles who have served in France.

It will be news to most Americans that since the early days of January large detachments of well-drilled Poles have been arriving in France from the United States. They are the regiments which Ignace Paderewski was tireless and devoted in recruiting.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is musty and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
