CURFEW DISTURBS

VILLAGERS' SLEEP

LONDON, Dec. 18.—"Can you tell me what they ring that bell for at 8:30 every evening?" a doughboy asked.

"That is the curfew," the Y. secretary explained, and went on to tell what the curfew is.

"Do you mean to say that these folks are supposed to ring off every night at half-past eight?" the soldier questioned in amazement. "Gee, I'll say they are dead around here half of the time and asleep the other half."

A few days later the same doughboy called the secretary delightedly.

"Say," he chuckled, "do you know what? I've got a better one yet. You know that curfew I was asking you about that rang at 8:30? Well, they had to stop ringing it, because all the people complained they didn't want that blamed bell ringing and waking them up just as they got to sleep."

Andy used to buy the biggest plug for the money

'till one day Barney gave him a chew of Real Gravely.

It was an hour or more before Andy said anything. "How much longer does this Gravely hold its good taste?" he says. "Two or three little squares last me all morning," answers Barney. "This class of tobacco lasts so much longer it costs no more to chew it than ordinary plug costs."

It goes further—that's why you can get the good taste of this class of tobacco without extra cost.

PATHEPHONE to offer our Xmas Customers
The international fame of the Pathephone will immediately suggest many reasons. But the big, outstanding reason is the

PATHE SAPPHIRE BALL

A ball-shaped jewel used in place of metal needles.
It means no needles to change. More important still, the Pathe Sapphire Ball means long life to the record. It cannot cut, dig into, gouge or rip the record surface. Pathe Records are guaranteed to play 1,000 times without showing perceptible wear.

The PATHE LIBRARY OF RECORDS

Opens to you a glorious world of music. Not only the greatest singers now in America, but celebrated foreign artists who have never been here. Famous foreign orchestras and bands; and a host of delightful musical novelties.

Come in today and hear your favorite selections played the Pathe way.
