CARD GAMES STOPPED

Last Sunday Eve one of the fellows, who is a preacher in civilian life, gave us a 30-minute talk on the meaning of Xmas. It was very informal and much appreciated, judging by the attention given by the men.

FRED DAWSON'S DRUG STORE

The majority of us were lying on our backs and talking or playing cards when he began speaking. But before he had fairly started the house was silent and a pin dropping on the floor would have startled us.

One thing I have noticed lately is the amount of talk among the fellows concerning home and the comforts of home. Before the war ended it was conceded as cut of order to mention these things; but now that it is a fact we are headed for home, one hears everyone talking about home, and anxious to get there.

I shall have to stop now, Mother, but will write again soon.

Lovingly,

CLEO.

"Drive" Oil.

Over 500 different types of hushed rice or paddy were under examination last year at one of the government agricultural fairs in Florida, and over 200 types of specimens were grown at another. Hitherto much of the same grain grown in Florida has been exported to Panama, where it is used for the production of the so-called "olive oil" (see "Olive Oil" and Italy have long been famed).

Try a Tricorn.

Stop to think how often a certain clerk in the bakery department of a certain downtown store helps you to decide on a round marshmallow cake or a square chocolate in preference to a three-cornered devil's food.

"Look at the tricorn left again," chuckled the white-aproned diplomat.

"Never catch me again for 10's; too hard to wrap!"—Indianapolis News.

EDITORIAL For Your Store

ENERGY which quickens the Spirit and urges us on to do and dare is the source from which Accomplishment springs—the source of fulfillment of the task today and of all the tomorrows to come.

This Store of true Shoe Service has no dreamers. It pulsates with life and energy. When one task is complete another is brought forward by the coworkers here, each one of whom bends to the problem seriously and with enthusiasm.

Every Day is rare with the expectant air of Doing.

And thus, stocks are kept in time with the times and the season. Eagerness to please, newness and novelty appear in the stocks like the flowers of early Spring. Energy never slackens here—this is a store of Action where something is going on with energy all the time.
