

Forty Five Years of Success The astonishing Record of PERUNA

Not a cure-all, but a rational remedy for catarrh and all inflammation and congestion of the mucous membranes.

Catarrh attacks the mucous linings, in any organ, in any part of the body. It is not, as some imagine, confined to the nose and throat, although nasal catarrh is the most common form and afflicts many people.

Unchecked catarrh soon breaks down the tissue and destroys the organs or part. Evidence of the ravages of catarrh are all around us. Without desire to frighten anyone, we say: "Guard yourself against catarrh as you would against the direct plague. Fortify your system. Take Peruna."

INSPIRING WORDS FOR THE SICK FROM THOSE WHO KNOW.

A Good Medicine in the Family.

I had a bad case of catarrh and could get no relief. Peruna cured me. It is a fine medicine. We often use it in the family and find it good.

MRS. GENTLY GATIER,
East Lake Station,
Birmingham, Alabama.

FEELS LIKE A DIFFERENT PERSON.

Peruna has cured my stomach and I feel like a different person. I only took twelve bottles of Peruna and now eat anything without distress, something I have not done for fifteen years.

I recommend Peruna to everybody suffering with catarrh of the stomach.

J. J. THOMPSON,

Taking a prominent place in this week's social activities, Mrs. P. R. Kelly presided over a most charming "afternoon" for which Mrs. Robert E. Greene was the motif. A galaxy of maids and matrons called to spend the afternoon as a farewell to Mrs. Greene, who will soon leave for Seattle to make her home. Music and social diversions filled the afternoon's hours, completed with a dainty lunch. The rooms where the guests gathered were most attractively adorned with early spring blossoms in shades of blue, lavender and white, combined with profusions of ferns and greenery. Those who were asked to spend the afternoon were Miss Alice Clement, Mrs. Ralph Cronise, Mrs. W. H. Hornbrook, Miss Velma Davis, Mrs. Rocky E. Mason, Mrs. L. H. Fish, Mrs. W. A. Barrett, Mrs. Willard Marks, Mrs. A. B. Wilson, Mrs. A. C. Schmitt, Mrs. Bert Veal, Mrs. C. V. Little, Mrs. Fred Hough, Mrs. Walton Worrell, Miss Flora Maxon, Mrs. G. E. Riggs, Mrs. T. G. Hopkins, Mrs. Edwin Fortmiller, Mrs. Bert Stevens, Mrs. Dan Johnston, Mrs. Earl Fortmiller, Mrs. F. M. French, Mrs. Wayne Stuart, Mrs. G. T. Hockensmith, Mrs. James Ewing, and Miss Una Hall.

In every detail handsomely appointed was the dinner given for the ladies of the United Presbyterian church congregation by the members of the missionary society. This event took place Wednesday evening in the dining room, which was transformed into an attractive spot, with profusions of red carnations, pussy willows and other flowers of early spring. Table appointments were also elaborately arranged of these blossoms. A program of several numbers followed the dinner. Music was furnished by the young ladies' quartet. A paper was read by Miss Margaret Dunlap, on "Our Campaign." A paper on "Our Leaders" was given by Miss Ethel Braden.

For the pleasure of Mr. and Mrs. Allan, of Portland, who are spending the winter in Albany, Mrs. M. Monteith was hostess in a delightful way to a number of friends Monday evening at her home. Music and old-fashioned games furnished the enjoyable diversions of the evening. At a late hour a dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Lovely in all of the appointments was the little dinner party presided over this week by Mrs. Dan Johnston. Several friends were asked in to spend the enjoyable evening as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Johnston.

One of this week's most enjoyable afternoons was presided over on Friday by Mrs. Edward Viereck at the home of her mother, Mrs. G. B. Hall, when she was hostess to the members of the Ness Nymphs club. The afternoon's hours were pleasantly occupied with music, conversation and fancy work, dainty refreshments being served at the close of those.

Miss Velma Davis and Miss Edna Laubner spent a few days in Portland this week, going there to attend the grand opera, Madame Butterfly.

Miss Corintha Hart went to Corvallis today to spend the week-end. She will attend a dance tonight, and be a guest at the Sigma Nu Sister dinner, which will be an elaborate affair of tomorrow.

The Monday Bridge club was entertained this week with Mrs. G. E. Riggs as hostess. The hours of the afternoon were most delightfully passed in a social way and a dainty lunch completed it.

Mrs. A. W. Langdon and Mrs. Arthur R. Boscow arrived in Albany the latter part of this week to be guests at the home of Mrs. Edward D. Cusick. Lieut. Boscow is expected to return from France in the very near future, as he is thought to be on the way home from overseas duty.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of dandruff.
