

Whether it be a time-worn chair or a table, saved more for sentiment than for appearance sake, it can be brought back to its original lustre by one coat of B-H Lustrelac.

Mahogany, walnut, cherry, oak—whatever the style and whatever the finish, there is a Lustrelac shade to match it. Lustrelac imparts a brilliant, durable and lasting finish. An old piece of furniture retouched with Lustrelac can hardly be told from new. Eight shades and colorless.

SOCIETY

PROGRESSIVE D. A. R. HONORS DINNER FOR MEMBERS SOON SERVICE MEN TO LEAVE HOME

By Beatrice Sanders

Most charming in every detail was the progressive dinner party of Thursday evening for which Mrs. O. D. Austin, Mrs. E. F. Wiles, Mrs. L. H. Fish and Mrs. J. R. Hulbert were hostesses in honor of a group of boys recently returned from the service. Lovely appointments were carried out at each place and a most delightful evening was passed. The first course was served at the O. D. Austin home, where the guests were seated at an attractively adorned table graced with sweet peas and violets. A large bowl of these blossoms centered the table and at each end novel little vases made from large shells were filled with greenery and violets and sweet peas. Green-shaded candles also added their soft glow.

The second or dinner course was served at the E. F. Wiles home, where the effective decorations were carried out with the yellow color scheme, profusions of daffodils predominating.

From there the guests went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fish, where the salad course was served. There the beautiful table appointments were carried out in red-shaded candles, carnations and place-cards of this color.

Mrs. Hulbert was hostess to the last course and from there the guests went to the theater. Hyacinths and lily-of-the-valleys were the blossoms used on the attractive table there.

The guests to be honored at this time were Lee Hulbert, Charles Fortmiller, Derrill Austin, Oran Jenkins, Henry Fish, Horace Hawtin and Clarence Wiles.

Mrs. John Simpson was hostess this week to the Ladies of the Presbyterian Missionary Society. A profitable afternoon was pleasantly passed.

We are faithful to the obligations imposed upon us. We are at all times conscientious. We are equipped in a twentieth century manner and render consistent service.

In honor of Mrs. William H. Hornbrook, the Daughters of the American Revolution presided at luncheon today at one o'clock at the Hotel Albany. The dainty appointments were completed with a floral centerpiece and a pretty corsage bouquet was presented to the honor guest.

Mrs. Hornbrook will soon leave for the East to visit her mother in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Monteth presided at dinner Wednesday evening for the pleasure of their guests, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Allan, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Derritt. Daffodils were used profusely, adding to the lovely appointments.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan returned to Montreal Thursday, after spending the winter in Albany.

The Entre Nous club members were guests this week of Mrs. Mary Bilyeu when she entertained them at her home. About the attractive rooms profusions of violets were used in decoration. A dainty lunch completed the afternoon spent in bridge. Mrs. L. G. Lewelling was a guest.

Mrs. A. B. Wilson most charmingly presided at a meeting of the Needlecraft club this week when they were guests at her home Thursday afternoon. Quantities of Oregon grape blossoms and daffodils were arranged about the rooms in decoration. The afternoon's hours were pleasantly passed in fancywork and conversation, made complete with a dainty lunch. Mrs. Hubert Birtchett and Mrs. Taylor of Southern Oregon were guests.

On Tuesday evening of this week the Eastern Star met and held initiation and a social time. Several guests from Salem and Portland were present at this time. At a late hour the guests repaired to the banquet room where a lunch was served. Spring flowers were used in decoration about the rooms.

Cleverly arranged, and a most enjoyable affair, was the "little girls" party of Wednesday afternoon, for which Mrs. Charles C. Curry and Mrs. Archie Metzger were hostesses in honor of Mrs. I. M. Doughton, of Astoria, formerly of Albany.

Games and amusements were in keeping with the children's idea, and the guests were appropriately attired. A grab box was one of the afternoon's features. The rooms were charmingly adorned with an abundance of wild flowers and wild currant blossoms. A delicious lunch brought the afternoon to a close. The Coterie club members and Mrs. John Millard, and Mrs. McClane, were the afternoon's guests.

HAMILTONS'

The Economical Corset

THE WAR HAS TAUGHT US THE MEANING OF TRUE ECONOMY

WHEN the Government urged conservation and economy, it recommended the buying of quality articles that would give maximum wear.

The mistaken idea that economy meant the purchase of cheaply made articles was removed forever.

Modart Corsets

are made from carefully selected, high-grade materials only. MODART boning, cloth, thread, tape—all are quality materials. The boning in particular—that factor upon which the style and shape of a corset so much depends—is made especially for the Modart Company from clock spring steel—the most perfect boning ever produced. It will not rust or take a permanent bend at the waistline. Every MODART Corset gives a high degree of satisfaction in wear and shape-keeping qualities.

ALL MODART Corsets lace in front—because front adjustment means right adjustment. The absence of laces at the back gives form and wonderful smoothness in gown fitting.

A trial fitting convinces. You have to put on a Modart to see its style and feel its comfort. Style and comfort are not easily explained.

Make a request for a trial fitting in our corset department before planning your Spring clothes.

the K. P. hall, was a jolly affair. Half of the guests were attired in boys' costumes, acting as partners to the other guests. Sailor, soldier and marine uniforms were in evidence and other clever costumes were used. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

The apron committee for the coming bazaar of the First Presbyterian church has been meeting twice a week to work at the home of Mrs. John A. Shaw, and on Tuesday afternoon of this week they enjoyed a social time at her home. A dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Shaw at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. F. K. Churchill was hostess to the H. D. W. club this week on Thursday afternoon. The usual social hour was enjoyed and brought to a close with refreshments.

Elaborate preparations are being made by the members of the Albany Honor Guard for a dance to be given next week at the armory in honor of all returned soldiers and sailors of Linn and Benton counties. The armory will be attractively decorated for the occasion, and music will be furnished by the Revelation Jazz orchestra of Corvallis. Throughout the evening icecream and cake will be served. Efforts are being made by the Honor Guard to reach all returned men through the newspapers, and extend to them a cordial welcome. Each member will be privileged to invite a civilian guest for the occasion.

The Campfire Girls enjoyed a hike today, walking out the Spring Hill road and spending the day in the woods. Mrs. Laura Bloom is guardian of the Campfire Girls and accompanied them on their trip.

The occasion being the birthday of Miss Gertrude Braden, a few friends were invited to dine with her last Monday evening. Covers were laid for 12 and a delicious repast was served to this merry group. Afterwards a happy evening was spent in chatting and music.

Mrs. Russell Blackman of Portland, formerly Miss Mae Roberts of this city, is spending the weekend in Albany visiting with friends.

Mrs. Morris Dowd was hostess this week on Thursday afternoon to the S. S. S. club. A pleasant social afternoon was passed at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dowd went to Portland this weekend to be the guests of Rev. and Mrs. O. B. Pershing, formerly of this city.

A happy event of last week was the family reunion and birthday celebration of Mrs. Malinda Millsap, at her home in Lebanon Sunday, when her five children, A. B. and B. A. Millsap, Mrs. Myrtle Adams, Mrs. Albion Peutherer and Mrs. Elizabeth Simpson, of this city, and their families gathered at the home and enjoyed a bounteous luncheon in honor of the aged parent

Chase The Ghost From your car

Many a motoring party touring through the country, is haunted by an unseen passenger—FEAR—DREAD that a tire will blow out, like a blast—

And land the motor car at the road side, a helpless thing.

But if you have faith in the tires on your car, Contented Security is the invisible passenger riding with you.

And if you have ridden on Goodrich Tires, you have faith in their big husky bodies, and thick BLACK SAFETY TREADS, extra wide, fortifying the sidewall against rut grinding.

You have faith in their dependability everywhere, and the durability which rounds out the Service Value of all Goodrich Tires.
