W. C. HAWLEY SPOKE AT SUNDAY SCHOOL

KNOR BUTTE, Apr. 8.—Special.—Farris Williams of Ft. Canby visited Tuesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Williams.

Mrs. Molver and children of Albany were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chambers.

Congressman W. C. Hawley and Mrs. Hawley were guests the first of the week of Mrs. Hawley's father, John Giesendorfer and sister, Mrs. Frank Lines.

A number of the residents here attended the government trophy train exhibition on Wednesday.

Harvey Bailey, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, is recovering slowly.

Knox Butte Union Sunday school on last Sunday had a good attendance. They were favored by a pleasant and instructive address by Congressman Hawley and a sermon by Rev. Hiram Smith. On Sunday, April 6, Henry Albers of Albany spoke after Sunday school. Veri Miller lead the singing. Excellent teachers have charge of the classes. Bible class, Mrs. Maria Miller; young people's class, Mrs. J. Williams; boys and girls' class, Mrs. Frank Lines; primary class, Mrs. Veri Miller. Time, 2:30 p. m. Everyone invited.

JAMES MILL TO MOVE FROM OLD
SANTIAM CORNERS

LEBANON, Apr. 8.—Special.—Leslie Waters and family have returned from Portland, where Mr. Waters has been at work in the shipyard. The five Waters children made quite an addition to school last week, bringing the total up to 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Fish are moving from the old Bogart place to their place east of Lebanon.

Mrs. Roy Reynolds and children returned Monday from a ten days' visit with relatives at Jefferson.

The James & Ingram sawmill, located on the old Harris place at Santiam Corners, is finishing up their timber, after which they will move the mill to what is known as the East Ingram Butte. This timber will likely be sufficient to keep the mill running steady for a year or more. They purchased the land recently.

Ed Strickler and Mr. Ward are the owners of brand-new 'flivvers.'

Farmers are taking advantage of the fine weather and have a large percent of their seedling done.

Ed Dickinson has been hauling ties from the James mill lately. He has been running his truck for almost a year, and has likely hauled more, and covered more miles, than any truck in the county for that period of time.

The road to Lebanon is in good condition now considering what it was six weeks ago when heavy trucks were ordered a rest for about four weeks.

The questionnaire system of making a historical record of the boys in the service, will enroll seven from Fairview. They are Jerry Heyne, Dale Loftin, A. E. F. in France, Geo. Jimerfield, U. S. N.; Tommie Miller, Dan Jimerfield, Paul Heyne, discharged, and Ed Bodwell, of the spruce division.
