IF BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if kidneys feel like lead or bladder bothers you—Meat forms uric acid.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe overcoming kidney trouble while it is trouble.

Through the Looking Glass

By EVELYN NESBIT

It is a secret—a dreadful secret—and friend husband must not know.

It would be death and destruction if he should find out.

So thinks Marguerite. She had the package sent to her friend's house, so that he would not discover the wrapping paper and the string that confined her latest extravagance. But some day, she told herself, she would tell him that Cousin Anne had bought it for herself, but that it was too small for her, so Anne made of it a present to Marguerite.

As for the hole the package had made in her husband's household treasury, Marguerite borrowed from sister to make it up. So hubby never would find out, and things would smooth out somehow.

Marguerite did not know what a tangle she had made for herself. She stroked her wrinkled brow—worry wrinkles already! Then she smiled as she thought of the wonderful seal-skin coat that was causing all the fuss.

But if Marguerite had been a wiser woman she would not have caused herself all this uneasiness. She had fallen into the depth of iniquity. It is true, by wasting her money. But why did she add insult to injury by trying to cover it over with lies, borrowing, deceit? Why did she not tell her husband at once what she had done? She would have avoided the conscience pangs that made her life miserable and made her detest that scrap of seal-skin.

Afraid that he would storm if she told him! She did not consider how much he would storm if by some mischance he should find out by himself how she lied to him and deceived him, in addition to being extravagant. And probably he would not have stormed at all had she "fessed up" at once. Taking him into her confidence would have brought them closer together than ever, whereas sneaking about behind his back laid the foundations for a breach.
